18 September 2014

The Honourable Ian Walker, MP
Minister for Science, Information Technology, Innovation and the Arts
Level 5, Executive Building
100 George Street
BRISBANE QLD 4000

Dear Minister

I am pleased to present the Annual Report 2013–14 and Financial Statements for the Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees.

I certify that this Annual Report complies with:

- the prescribed requirements of the Financial Accountability Act 2009 and the Financial and Performance Management Standard 2009, and
- the detailed requirements set out in the Annual Report Requirements for Queensland Government Agencies.

A checklist outlining the annual reporting requirements can be found on the final page of this Annual Report or accessed online: www.qagoma.qld.gov.au/about_us/annual_reports.

Yours sincerely,

Professor Susan Street, AO
Chair, Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees
INTRODUCTION

Vision

Increased quality of life for all Queenslanders through enhanced access, understanding and enjoyment of the visual arts and the assurance of Queensland’s reputation as a culturally dynamic state.

Mission

To be the focus for the visual arts in Queensland and a dynamic and accessible art museum of international standing.

Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art

Queensland’s premier visual arts institution, the Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art (QAGOMA), connects people and art through a dynamic program of Australian and international exhibitions and programs that showcase works from a diverse range of historical and contemporary artists.

These two vibrant and accessible galleries, the Queensland Art Gallery (QAG) and the Gallery of Modern Art (GOMA) offer complementary experiences that enrich Queensland’s cultural life.

Established in 1895 as the Queensland National Art Gallery, the institution was housed in temporary premises until the opening of the QAG building at South Bank in 1982. GOMA opened in December 2006.

The Gallery’s Collection comprises more than 16,000 historical and contemporary Australian, Indigenous Australian, Asian, Pacific and international works of art. The Gallery’s flagship project is the Asia Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art (APT), the only major recurring international exhibition series to focus exclusively on the contemporary art of Asia, the Pacific and Australia. The 8th Asia Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art (APT8) will be presented from November 2015 to May 2016.

QAGOMA is the only Australian state gallery to provide ongoing regional touring exhibitions and programs, ensuring all Queenslanders have access to the Collection. The Gallery is committed to profiling Queensland artists and strengthening relationships with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities through a dedicated acquisition focus, an exhibition program and public engagement strategies.

GOMA is the only art museum in Australia to feature purpose-built facilities dedicated to film and the moving image. The Gallery’s Australian Cinémathèque curatorial department presents retrospective and thematic film programs and exhibitions showcasing the work of influential filmmakers and artists, and collects significant works of film, video and new media.

The Gallery’s Children’s Art Centre is an international leader in developing interactive art projects for children and their families, and has developed an award-winning range of books for children, many in collaboration with leading Australian and international artists.

The Gallery publishes a range of research and scholarship on the Collection, exhibitions and artists, accessible via exhibition catalogues, monographs, books, brochures and websites.

QAGOMA presents engaging public programs, integrating new technologies to enhance the visitor experience. Wide-ranging education and public programs highlight the visual arts as an interconnected part of broader culture, relevant to the lives of diverse audiences, including children, young people and seniors.

Exhibitions, publications, public programs and collecting practices, all of which form the Gallery’s core business, make art more accessible to Queenslanders, enhance the visitor experience and help define the community.

The Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art is governed by the Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees (Board).
Queensland Art Gallery
Board of Trustees

The Board is a statutory body. Its existence, functions and powers are set out in the Queensland Art Gallery Act 1987 (the Act).

The Board’s functions include:

(a) to control, manage and maintain the Queensland Art Gallery and each branch thereof and all property in the possession of the Board;

(b) to develop the Queensland Art Gallery’s Collection of works of art;

(c) to minister to the needs of the community in any or all branches of the visual arts, including by displaying works of art; promoting artistic taste and achievement through the illustration of the history and development of the visual arts; promoting and providing lectures, films, broadcasts, telecasts, publications and other educational or cultural instruction or material, and promoting research;

(d) to control and manage all land and premises vested in or placed under the control of the Board;

(e) to restore and repair works of art in the possession of the Board;

(f) to frame and package, and manufacture display materials for, works of art in the possession of the Board; and

(g) to encourage artistic achievement by artists resident in Queensland.

For performing its functions, the Board has all the powers of an individual and may, for example, enter into arrangements, agreements, contracts and deeds; acquire, hold, deal with and dispose of property; engage consultants; appoint agents and attorneys; charge, and fix terms, for goods, services, facilities and information supplied by it; and do anything else necessary or desirable to be done in performing its functions.
On behalf of the Board, it is my pleasure to present the Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees Annual Report 2013–14, which details how the Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art (QAGOMA) has contributed to positive outcomes for Queensland. By fostering an innovative and resilient cultural sector, creating a cultural and social hub, and building on the state’s reputation as a cultural tourism destination, the Gallery has enhanced access to and enjoyment of the visual arts for the entire community.

QAGOMA attracted over 1.35 million visitors to its two venues this year, with visitor surveys indicating a satisfaction rate of more than 95 per cent with our exhibitions and programs. Ticketed exhibition programs recorded a combined economic impact to the Queensland economy of $520 million.

The Gallery’s major international exhibition had wide audience and cultural tourism appeal. At GOMA, ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’ was the first Australian solo exhibition by one of the most renowned international artists working today. Its remarkable attendance of 229,323 is the highest to date for a ticketed exhibition by a living artist held in Australia, and the Gallery’s second highest for a paid exhibition. Cai’s landmark installation ‘Heritage 2013’ was acquired with the assistance of benefactor Win Schubert, AO, and the QAGOMA Foundation, as a lasting legacy for the Collection from this major exhibition.

Partnerships with leading international museums saw two significant design exhibitions staged at QAG, ‘Quilts 1700–1945’, an exclusive exhibition from the renowned Victoria and Albert Museum in London, and ‘California Design 1930–1965: Living in a Modern Way’, a survey of modern American west coast design from the Los Angeles County Museum of Art, attracted a combined attendance of over 100,000.

Collection building saw the acquisition of 465 works, bringing the total number of works held by QAGOMA to 16,550.

Major Collection-based initiatives included ‘My Country, I Still Call Australia Home: Contemporary Art from Black Australia’, our largest ever exhibition of contemporary Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art, which subsequently toured to Auckland Art Gallery Toi o Tāmaki in New Zealand; and ‘Transparent: Watercolour in Queensland 1850s–1980s’, a comprehensive survey of watercolour painting in the state.

More than 259,000 children aged 12 and under visited QAGOMA during the year. The Gallery’s Children’s Art Centre collaborated with artists Gordon Hookey, Cai Guo-Qiang and Jemima Wyman to deliver inventive interactive artist projects for young visitors and their families.

Programs presented by the Australian Cinémathèque, exploring popular genres and lesser-known masterpieces of film from around the world, attracted 24,365 visitors to the GOMA cinemas.

Collection exhibitions ‘Ah Xian: Metaphysica’, ‘Lloyd Rees: Life and Light’ and ‘Ever Present: Photographs from the Queensland Art Gallery Collection 1850–1975’ toured to regional venues across the state, as did two Children’s Art Centre artist projects, Gordon Hookey’s ‘Kangaroo Crew on Tour’ and ‘Kids on Tour: Cai Guo-Qiang’. These regional programs attracted 69,233 visitors to 76 venues.

Meaningful avenues of experiential, educational and social access led to new levels of engagement for audiences. From the energetic debates of the GOMA Talks panel discussions held in conjunction with ‘My Country’ to the tranquil gongfu tea ceremonies hosted in association with ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’, as well as artist talks, behind-the-scenes tours, live music and cooking classes, events went beyond traditional art museum experiences to prove that visual art is not just relevant, but central to our lives.

The QAGOMA Foundation received some of its most significant donations and gifts ever during 2013–14, strategically strengthening the Collection in important areas and contributing to programming and publishing objectives. I acknowledge the Foundation Committee and members, and the exceptional contributions of longstanding benefactors Foundation President Tim Fairfax, AC, his wife Gina Fairfax and the Fairfax family, as well as James C Sourris, AM, Philip Bacon, AM, Cathryn Mittelheuser, AM, Thomas Bradley, QC, James Mollison, AO, and Dr Michael and Eva Slancar. I also would like to specially acknowledge Win Schubert, who we congratulate on her appointment as an Officer of the Order of Australia and her recognition through the Queensland Greats Awards program.

The Gallery and the wider arts community were deeply saddened by the passing of long-term benefactors and friends Henry Bartlett, OBE, and Margaret Mittelheuser, AM, this year. Henry and Margaret’s generosity and commitment to the arts will not be forgotten.

The annual Foundation Appeal attracted a record number of new contributors, enabling the Gallery to acquire a striking portrait by Australian painter Ben Quilty, Sergeant R after Afghanistan 2012 is a major addition to the Collection, and particularly poignant as we recognise the contribution of those serving in Australia’s armed forces in the lead up to the 100th anniversary of World War One.

The Gallery’s commercial services continue to be an important source of revenue, contributing substantially to the visitor experience, with exhibition-themed restaurant and cafe menus and an extensive range of books and other products on offer at the QAGOMA Store.

OVERVIEW

Professor Susan Street, AO
Chair, Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees
The Gallery employs a robust risk management framework, detailed in the Governance section of this report. Strategic challenges facing the Gallery’s ability to contribute to Government objectives include adequate resourcing to continue to deliver high quality exhibitions and programs which are attractive to Queensland, interstate and international audiences; and continuing to secure the support of individual donors and benefactors in order to build the Collection and enhance programming. Risks that have the potential to become strategic in nature are referred to the Executive Management Team, and the findings of risk assessment inform the Gallery’s broader planning processes.

I gratefully acknowledge the generous assistance and donations received from all our sponsors and partners, corporate and private benefactors, and collectors and artists. A full schedule of the exhibition program, recognising partners and sponsors, appears on pages 46–53.

I acknowledge the support of the Queensland Government, in particular the Honourable Campbell Newman MP, Premier of Queensland, and the Minister for Science, Information Technology, Innovation and the Arts, the Honourable Ian Walker MP. I also thank the current Director-General, Department of Science, Information Technology, Innovation and the Arts, the Honourable Ian Walker MP; her predecessor Andrew Garner; and the staff at Arts Queensland, particularly Deputy Director-General Kirsten Herring, with whom we have had the great pleasure of working closely over the past year.

The Gallery contributes to the Government’s Arts for all Queenslanders Strategy 2014–2018 through a dedicated schedule of regional exhibitions, and strives to make its programs accessible through on-site programs at regional venues, as well as digital services, including live webcasts which cater to all audiences.

I welcome the Government’s commitment to make Queensland an arts and cultural hub, with the Cultural Precinct Strategy 2013–2015 and the release of the Queensland Cultural Precinct Draft Master Plan in May. This year, the Gallery strengthened partnerships with neighbouring arts organisations to contribute to the realisation of the strategy as it takes shape.

QAGOMA’s strategic focus on cultural tourism links directly to the Government’s DestinationQ strategy to make Queensland Australia’s number one tourist destination. The Gallery shares a great working relationship with the Department of Tourism, Major Events, Small Business and the Commonwealth Games, and I sincerely thank the Minister, the Honourable Jann Stuckey MP, along with Chair Stephen Gregg, CEO Leanne Coddington and Steven Wright, former CEO, Tourism and Events Queensland, together with John Atken, CEO, Brisbane Marketing, for their support.

I acknowledge and thank my fellow Trustees — Deputy Chair Philip Bacon, AM, Gina Fairfax, Ross Patane, Liz Pidgeon, Avril Quail and Rick Wilkinson, as well as former trustees Dr Amanda Beil, Margie Fraser, John Lobban, David Williams and Peter Young, AM.

I congratulate Director Chris Saines, CNZM, on an outstanding first year at the helm of QAGOMA. In October 2013, Chris outlined his new direction for the future of the institution, prioritising the growth and deployment of the Collection, a deep and sustainable commitment to QAGOMA-curated exhibitions with the world’s leading artists, and a new learning and social hub for the Gallery that will encourage lifelong learning.

I extend thanks to the Gallery’s Executive Management Team for their contribution and leadership: Celestine Doyle, Deputy Director, Development and Commercial Services; Maud Page, Deputy Director, Collection and Exhibitions; and Simon Wright, Assistant Director, Learning and Public Engagement. I also thank the Gallery’s tremendous staff for their outstanding commitment during the year, the many volunteers who contribute to the Gallery community, and our dedicated and engaged QAGOMA Members.

2013–14 was a year of robust change for the Gallery, delivering a refreshed Vision, Mission and Strategic Plan, which were developed through a process of consultation with the institution’s staff, Board and key stakeholders. This forward planning, detailed on page 62, positions the Gallery to make the most of its Collection, reputation and expertise.

This has been a year of remarkable achievements for the Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art, and the Board is extremely confident and enthusiastic about QAGOMA’s future.
BACKGROUND

Government objectives

The Government’s objectives for the Gallery in the community are articulated in the Queensland Art Gallery Act 1987. In pursuing the strategic goals detailed in the Gallery’s Strategic Plan 2013–18, significant contributions were made to the Queensland Government’s objective of enhancing cultural and economic outcomes for Queensland through an innovative arts and cultural sector.

In line with the Government’s Arts for all Queenslanders Strategy 2014–2018, the Gallery’s strategies and activities in 2013–14 embraced a wide audience, including children and families, young people, seniors, school and tertiary students, and audiences of diverse backgrounds from throughout Queensland. See pages 10–20 for details on accessibility to the Gallery’s Collection and programming.

QAGOMA made a significant contribution to Queensland’s economy via inbound cultural tourism, recognising the Government’s DestinationQ strategy to increase tourism and overnight visitor expenditure in the state. See page 14 for tourism and economic impact results.

The Gallery is committed to providing value for money through a focus on increasing non-government revenue as a percentage of total revenue, through sponsorship income, ticket sales and commercial services. See pages 15–18 for outcomes of sponsorship and commercial services.

Object and guiding principles

In performing its functions, the Board must have regard to the object of, and guiding principles for, the Act. The object of the Act is to contribute to the cultural, social and intellectual development of all Queenslanders. The guiding principles behind the achievement of this object are:

- leadership and excellence should be provided in the visual arts;
- there should be responsiveness to the needs of communities in regional and outer metropolitan areas;
- respect for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures should be affirmed;
- children and young people should be supported in their appreciation of, and involvement in, the visual arts;
- diverse audiences should be developed;
- capabilities for lifelong learning about the visual arts should be developed;
- opportunities should be developed for international collaboration and for cultural exports, especially to the Asia Pacific region; and
- content relevant to Queensland should be promoted and presented.

Strategic Plan 2013–18

The Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees Strategic Plan 2013–18 set out the following strategic objectives:

1. Expand, exhibit, publish on and care for our Collection
   Strategies:
   - Develop the Queensland Art Gallery Collection (‘the Collection’) in accordance with our acquisitions policy.
   - Present a dynamic range of exhibitions (including travelling exhibitions) and displays focused on or incorporating Collection works.
   - Continue scholarly research into the Collection and dissemination of such information through a wide variety of publications and public programs.
   - Conduct regular reviews of Collection management and conservation practices to ensure ongoing best practice.
   - Establish high quality, secure, climate-controlled storage to meet the long-term needs of the Collection.

2. Reach new and existing audiences
   Strategies:
   - Present a program of major exhibitions and cinema programs — including international exhibitions exclusive to Queensland, and the three-yearly Asia Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art — with wide audience and cultural tourism appeal.
   - Provide an economic benefit to Queensland through the presentation of major exhibitions and building the Gallery’s profile as an important cultural tourism destination.
   - Expand and strengthen important partnerships and alliances between the Gallery and key national and international museums, arts touring organisations and potential sponsors.
   - Collaborate with tourism sector partners to attract attendance by key local, intrastate, interstate and international audiences.
   - Communicate about Gallery exhibitions and programming to audiences of diverse backgrounds.
   - Develop targeted programming, marketing and commercial services to attract new audiences and encourage philanthropy.
3. Enrich visitor experience

Strategies:

• Present a range of diverse and innovative public programs and related initiatives, including those presented by the Children’s Art Centre.

• Highlight the visual arts as an interconnected part of broader culture relevant to the lives of a wide audience, including children, young people and seniors.

• Deliver educational programs and services to schools, universities and the broader education sector.

Operational Plan 2013–14

The Operational Plan 2013–14 detailed key undertakings proposed for the 12-month period from 1 July 2013 to 30 June 2014 in support of the above goals.

This plan complies with requirements set out in the Queensland Art Gallery Act 1987 and should be read in conjunction with the Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees Strategic Plan 2013–18. The suite of planning documents also includes two specific purpose plans: Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees Asset Strategic Plan 2013–18 and Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees Information Communication and Technology Resources Strategic Plan 2013–18.

The Operational Plan addressed the three key goals of the Strategic Plan 2013–18 and outlined undertakings for:

• Major exhibitions and Collection-based exhibitions
• Collection storage
• Publishing
• Fundraising
• Collection management and digitisation
• International, exclusive exhibitions
• Queensland exhibitions
• Australian Cinémathèque programs
• QAGOMA Members
• Marketing, sponsorship and communications
• Commercial services
• Public programs
• Children’s Art Centre.

The Minister for Science, Information Technology, Innovation and the Arts did not give any directions to the Board during or relating to the financial year.
HIGHLIGHTS

• 465 works were acquired for the Collection.
• ‘My Country, I Still Call Australia Home: Contemporary Art from Black Australia’ was the Gallery’s largest exhibition of contemporary Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art to date.
• Cai Guo-Qiang’s Heritage 2013 was acquired for the Collection.

OUTCOMES

Expand, exhibit, publish on and care for our Collection

Develop the Queensland Art Gallery Collection (‘the Collection’) in accordance with our acquisitions policy.

The Gallery’s Collection was central to the exhibitions and programs presented this year. Collection development, following the acquisitions policy, saw 465 works acquired, bringing the total number of works held by the Gallery to 16 550.

Australian Art

This year, 242 works were acquired for the Australian Art to 1975 collection, including numerous works on paper by Lloyd Rees and photographs by Queensland photographer Richard Stringer. Significant acquisitions included Dick Watkins’s major abstract painting The Mooche 1968, often cited as the artist’s best work, which was gifted by James C Souris, AM. Prized for its historic significance to Queensland, Sidney Nolan’s painting Platypus Bay, Fraser Island 1947 complements the Gallery’s existing works on the subject of Fraser Island and the associated story of Eliza Fraser.

The Queensland Heritage collection grew with the addition of a remarkable set of postcards from the 1880s to 1920s featuring images of Queensland.

The Contemporary Australian Art collection was strengthened with the acquisition of 46 works; nine of the artists whose works were collected were from Queensland. Highlights included a major new work by Fiona Hall, Ghost net 2011, and an important late work by the influential potter Gwyn Hanssen Pigott, Trail with dark beaters 2008-13. The QAGOMA Foundation’s Annual Appeal successfully raised funds to acquire Sergeant P, after Afghanistan 2012 by Ben Quilty.

For the Indigenous Australian Art and Indigenous Fibre Art collections, 31 works were acquired, among them works by five Queensland artists. Important acquisitions included Fiona Foley’s word sculpture DISPERSED 2008, which challenges the viewer to reflect on a dark chapter in Queensland’s history, and Shirley Macnamara’s Skullcap 2013, purchased with funds from Gina Fairfax. Based on customary funerary regalia worn by Aboriginal women, Skullcap honours the Aboriginal men who fought and died for Australia in two world wars. Commissioned with funds from Anne Best, Dhuvanwarr Marika’s hollow log memorial pole Larrakitj — Milngurr 2014 depicts Milngurr, the sacred well at Yalangbarra in north-eastern Arnhem Land where the Djang’kawu ancestors created fresh water, life, sacred law and language.

Asian and Pacific Art

The Asian Art department developed focus areas of Japanese art and artworks exploring religion and faith. A diverse group of 17 works was acquired, including a Thai Buddhist bronze bust from the fifteenth century, two Indian miniature paintings depicting scenes from the Ramayana, and seven prints by the renowned Japanese artist Ichiryusai Hiroshige.

Among 48 works acquired for the Contemporary Asian Art collection was Cai Guo-Qiang’s extraordinary Heritage 2013, commissioned for the artist’s solo exhibition at GOMA and acquired with funds donated by Win Schubert, AO, and the QAGOMA Foundation. Works by Nobuyoshi Araki, Yoko Asakai, Chinh Pom, Tepepi Kaneuji, Sachiko Kazama, Meiro Koizumi, Daido Moriyama and Tomoko Yoneda were acquired in preparation for a major exhibition profiling the Gallery’s collection of contemporary Japanese art. Yasumasa Morimura’s photograph White Darkness 1994–2008 was acquired for inclusion in the forthcoming ‘The 8th Asia Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art’.

The Pacific Art collection was augmented with 31 new acquisitions, including works by leading New Zealand artists as well as works referencing customary practices in Melanesia. Highlights included two groups of photographs by New Zealand photographer Ans Westra documenting Māori communities in the 1980s, two large photographs by New Zealand artist Greg Semu, and a painting by Simon Gende for inclusion in an upcoming exhibition focusing on the art of Papua New Guinea.

International Art and Australian Cinémathèque

Some 26 works were acquired for the International Art to 1975 collection, notably twentieth-century modern art photography, eighteenth-century earthenware and porcelain, and French post-impressionist prints.

The Gallery actively pursued the acquisition of 24 works by International Contemporary artists from Africa, the Middle East, and Central and South America. These included a large watercolour by Barthélemy Toguo, three paintings and a photograph by Otobong Nkanga and photographs by Yto Barrada, François-Xavier Gbré, Kiluanji Kia Henda and Uche Okpa-Iroha, all acquired with the generous support of Tim Fairfax, AC. Four Biosphere works by Argentine artist Tomás Saraceno, which were displayed in ‘Harvest’, and Sports Internationaux by Bodys Isek Kingelez from the Democratic Republic of Congo strengthened the Gallery’s holdings of contemporary international sculpture.

Key acquisitions of Film, Video and New Media included Mika Rottenberg’s Mary’s cherries 2004 and Oskar Fischinger’s Raumlichtkunst (Space-Light-Art) c.1926/2012, a three-channel HD video projection exploring the important lines of influence between art and the moving image.

The QAGOMA Research Library acquired Kiroku, a 24-volume photographic journal by Japanese artist Daido Moriyama, purchased with funds donated by Dr Caroline Turner through the QAGOMA Foundation. Numerous vinyl LP records and items of music-related ephemera were acquired for the Research Library’s collection; many were gifts from Scott Redford, as part of the development of the exhibition ‘Seen + Heard: Works and Multiples from the Collection’.

For a full list of acquisitions, see pages 21–45.

Present a dynamic range of exhibitions (including travelling exhibitions) and displays focused on or incorporating Collection works.

Major Collection-based exhibitions included:
- ‘Harvest’, in conjunction with the film program ‘Harvest: Food on Film’, at GOMA
- ‘Transparent: Watercolour in Queensland 1850s–1980s’ at QAG.

Collection-based exhibitions and displays at GOMA with a strong focus on contemporary Indigenous Australian Art holdings included:
- ‘Death and Life: rakuny ga walnga: Contemporary Arnhem Land Art’
- ‘Voice and Reason’

Exhibitions at GOMA that examined the contemporary collections from a range of perspectives included:
- ‘Earth and Elsewhere: Contemporary Works from the Collection’
- ‘Everyday Magic’
- ‘Seen + Heard: Works and Multiples from the Collection’
- ‘Trace: Performance and its Documents’.

Exhibitions staged as part of the Glencore Queensland Artists’ Gallery program focused on three highly regarded artists in different fields. Drawing on the Collection and augmented by loans, including works from the artists and their families, these exhibitions included:
- ‘Ruth Stoneley: A Stitch in Time’
- ‘Pleasure of Place: Photographs by Richard Stringer’
- ‘Sam Fullbrook: Delicate Beauty’.

An ongoing program of changing international art displays at QAG included a presentation of early twentieth-century German expressionist prints and works on paper, which demonstrated the effects of World War One on German society. International photography was explored in depth with the exhibition ‘Ever Present: Photographs from the Queensland Art Gallery Collection 1850–1975’.

Displays of Collection works at QAG and GOMA by leading artists featured significant artworks by William Robinson, Fred Williams, Bea Maddock, Kathy Temin, Richard Long, Ah Xian, Scott Redford and Ed Ruscha throughout the year.

For a full list of exhibitions, see pages 46–53.

A total of 54 objects from the Collection were lent to regional, national and international galleries for exhibition purposes; 12 of these objects were lent to regional Queensland galleries.

As at 30 June 2014, 178 objects were on loan to Queensland Government offices.

Continue scholarly research into the Collection and dissemination of such information through a wide variety of publications and public programs.

Research

The Australian Centre of Asia Pacific Art (ACAPA), the Gallery’s Asian and Pacific research arm, hosted two curatorial volunteers and two curatorial interns: Michael Kisombo (Papua New Guinea) as part of the Prime Minister’s Pacific Program, and Junghee Mun (South Korea) as part of a Public Service Exchange through the Queensland-Gyeonggi-Do Sister State Agreement.

ACAPA’s long-running Perspectives: Asia seminar program, presented in collaboration with the Griffith Asia Institute, attracted sizeable audiences. Issues vital to the Asia Pacific region were addressed by speakers including the Honourable Ralph Regenvanu, Vanuatu’s Minister for Lands, Geology and Mines; Steve Howard, secretary general of The Global Foundation; and the Honourable Michael Kirby, AC, CHM, jurist, academic and former Justice of the High Court of Australia.

The long-term involvement of the Gallery’s Centre for Contemporary Art Conservation (CCAC) in the Australian Research Council Linkage Project ‘The Twentieth Century in Paint’ concluded this year. The project won the 2013 Australian Institute for the Conservation of Cultural Materials award for Outstanding Research in the Field of Material Conservation. This award acknowledged the project’s immense contribution to a better understanding of the conservation of contemporary paint materials.

Major conservation research was carried out on several Collection works:

• Infra-red reflectography of a work by LWK Wirth revealed the previously unknown title of Saltwater lagoon.

• Transmitted light analysis was used to identify 13 watermarks on watercolours displayed in ‘Transparent: Watercolour in Queensland 1850s–1980s’, contributing to the National Archives of Australia Watermark database.

• Partnerships with DuluxGroup Australia and the Museum of Victoria were established to access historic paint tins, contributing to ongoing analysis of early emulsion house paints in the work of Ian Fairweather. Using FTIR (Fourier Transform Infra-red Spectroscopy), the materials of Platypus Bay, Fraser Island 1947 by Sidney Nolan were investigated in relation to Mrs Fraser 1947, another work in the Gallery’s Collection; the analysis compared the priming materials of the works.

• A project documenting and recording stamps on masonite and hardboards commenced, with the aim of developing a directory of materials used by artists to assist with the authentication and dating of works.

Conservation research was also carried out on Fred Williams’s Echuca landscape 1961, Sam Fullbrook’s Pike’s farm at Haden 1982–87 and Ah Xian’s Heavy wounds series 1991.

Artist interviews were conducted with Jemima Wyman, Christian Capurro, George Poonkhin Khut and Tomás Saraceno’s studio assistant Knut Liese. Information was gathered on aspects of the care and conservation of these artists’ works. All artists contributed material samples to the Conservation Artist Materials Archive.

The richly illustrated Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth publication, on the exhibition of the same name, investigated the artist’s long working relationship with the Gallery and documented major installations including the Collection work Heritage 2013. An accompanying children’s publication, Let’s Create an Exhibition with a Boy Named Cai was a finalist in the international REVERE Awards 2014 in the category Beyond the Classroom.

Harvest: Art, Film + Food provided a new model for Gallery exhibition publications, with its inclusion of recipes from well-known chefs.

Pattern Bandits: Blending In and Standing Out is the first activity book developed by the Gallery in collaboration with a solo Australian artist — Jemima Wyman.

Gallery publications are distributed through the Gallery Store and online, as well as nationally through Thames and Hudson.

For a full list of publications produced by the Gallery, see pages 54–57.

Public Programs

During the year, 167 public programs were presented to 12,203 visitors, including many for the major exhibitions ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’, ‘Trace: Performance and its Documents’, ‘Transparent: Watercolour in Queensland 1850s–1980s’ and ‘Harvest’. These programs included artist talks, panel discussions and curatorial tours, all of which contributed to scholarship and discussion of the Collection.

The Gallery partnered with ABC Radio National to host a series of three GOMA Talks discussion panels based on the themes explored in ‘My Country, I Still Call Australia Home’; 12 prominent thinkers were invited to speak on country, life and history.

Conduct regular reviews of Collection management and conservation practices to ensure ongoing best practice.

Collection Management

Enhancements were made to the KE EMu collection management software to meet the Gallery’s needs.

Photography of Collection artworks continued — 38.6 per cent of the Collection is now available as direct digital capture, part of a movement toward online accessibility of the Collection.

The Gallery reviewed the provenance documentation of selected works in its collection of historical Asian art, and will continue to undertake further research to provide as much detailed evidence as possible of its responsible approach to acquiring works in this collecting area.
The acquisitions policy was amended to include further information on the Gallery’s adherence to international museum standards and processes, with plans to review acquisition procedures to reflect recent developments in the field of provenance research.

Conservation

Major conservation treatments were conducted on the following Collection works:

- Nam June Paik TV cello 2000
- Hiraki Sawa O 2009
- Cai Guo-Qiang Heritage 2013
- John Cage Mozart Mix 1991
- Spencer Finch The Light at Lascaux (Cave Entrance), September 29, 2005, 5:27 PM 2005
- Eugene Carchesio 10 thoughts 2002
- Ah Xian Human human – lotus, cloisonne figure I 2000–01
- Brikiti Cultural Group Korumbo (spirit house) 2012
- Auschar Chauncey Portrait of Richard Edwards 1874
- LWK Wirth Saltwater lagoon 1911
- Ricky Swallow Monkey still I, II and III 1997
- Ah Xian Heavy wounds series 1991
- Sam Fullbrook Pike’s farm at Haden 1982–87.

Protection

An internal Protective Security Review was undertaken to ensure best practice arrangements to safeguard the Gallery’s Collection.

Establish high quality, secure, climate-controlled storage to meet the long-term needs of the Collection.

The Gallery worked with Arts Queensland in the preparation of a proposal to address both immediate and long-term Collection storage requirements, including the introduction of a mezzanine floor in QAG’s collection storage facility.

Reach new and existing audiences

HIGHLIGHTS

- QAGOMA collaborated with leading international museums the Victoria and Albert Museum, London, and the Los Angeles County Museum of Art.

Present a program of major exhibitions and cinema programs — including international exhibitions exclusive to Queensland, and the three-yearly Asia Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art — with wide audience and cultural tourism appeal.

QAGOMA’s major exhibitions for the year included significant installations by one of the most highly regarded international contemporary artists of our time, as well as design exhibitions from two leading international museums. In addition, the Australian Cinémathèque hosted comprehensive retrospectives of renowned directors and thematic programs exploring popular film genres.

Curatorial staff conducted research travel in preparation for ‘The 8th Asia Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art’, to be presented in 2015–16.

Exhibitions

‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’ achieved an outstanding attendance of 229 323 visitors, and the exhibition’s breathtaking installations were extremely popular on social media.

Presented at QAG over summer, ‘California Design 1930–1965: Living in a Modern Way’ from the Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) attracted 59 999 visitors.

‘Quilts 1700–1945’ from the Victoria and Albert Museum, London, was exclusive to Brisbane and generated an attendance of 42 758 visitors.
Cinema

The Gallery’s Australian Cinémathèque curated seven major international film programs exclusive to Brisbane. The programs sourced the best available screening materials internationally, giving audiences many opportunities to view films not normally accessible to the public.

The Australian Cinémathèque screened 441 short and feature films in 500 screenings attended by 24,365 visitors. They included the major curated film programs ‘My Life As I Live It: First Peoples and Black Cinema’, ‘Claire Denis’, ‘Andrey Tarkovsky: Poet of the Cinema’, ‘Fairytales and Fables’ and ‘The Last of England: Thatcherism and British Cinema’. Two ticketed programs were also presented — ‘Action, Hong Kong Style’ and ‘Orson Welles: A Retrospective’.

For full exhibition and cinema program details, see pages 46–53.

Provide an economic benefit to Queensland through the presentation of major exhibitions and building the Gallery’s profile as an important cultural tourism destination.

Three exclusive-to-Queensland ticketed exhibitions were presented in 2013–14:

These exhibitions contributed to a cumulative estimated economic benefit of more than $79 million to Queensland from ticketed exhibitions presented since the Gallery became a two-site institution in December 2006.

To achieve these results, the Gallery has collaborated with sponsors and tourism sector partners to attract greater local, intrastate, interstate and international audiences. For more information on these partnerships, see page 16.

Expand and strengthen important partnerships and alliances between the Gallery and key national and international museums, arts touring organisations and potential sponsors.

Relationships with national and international museums and cultural organisations were strengthened across a range of alliances and involved both incoming and outgoing exhibitions.

International

‘Quilts 1700–1945’, organised by the Victoria and Albert Museum, London (V&A), and curated by Sue Prichard, Curator of Contemporary Textiles, was the second major textiles exhibition staged in partnership with the V&A. ‘Hats: An Anthology by Stephen Jones’ was presented at QAG in 2010.

‘California Design 1930–1965: Living in a Modern Way’ was organised by the Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) and curated by Wendy Kaplan, Curator and Department Head, and Bobbye Tigerman, Associate Curator, from LACMA’s Decorative Arts and Design Department. This was QAGOMA’s first collaboration with LACMA.

QAGOMA worked closely with artist Cai Guo-Qiang and Cai Studio to realise ‘Falling Back to Earth’.

The Gallery’s major exhibition of contemporary Indigenous Australian art, ‘My Country: Contemporary Art from Black Australia’, curated by Bruce McLean, Curator, Indigenous Art, was presented at the Auckland Art Gallery Toi o Tāmaki, New Zealand (28 March – 17 August 2014), and was accompanied by the Children’s Art Centre artist project ‘Gordon Hookey: Kangaroo Crew’.

Yayoi Kusama’s Obliteration room 2002 to present toured internationally to four venues in South America, three venues in Asia and one venue in Switzerland.

For full details of touring exhibitions, see pages 50–51.

As an associate member of the Fédération Internationale des Archives du Film (FIAF), the Gallery’s Australian Cinémathèque collaborated with a number of prestigious international film organisations, including institutions and archives in the United Kingdom, United States, China, Hong Kong, Russia, Sweden, France, Germany, Italy and the Czech Republic. FIAF membership facilitated the loan of film prints otherwise unavailable for screenings.
The Director and Gallery staff undertook international research travel, particularly in the Asia Pacific region, as part of the development of ‘The 8th Asia Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art’ (APT8) and other exhibitions. This included meeting with artists and colleagues from museums and arts organisations to expand networks and strengthen alliances with the Gallery for potential future collaboration. APT travel is funded by the Australia Council.

National

‘Yirrkala Drawings’ was developed by the Art Gallery of New South Wales in association with the Buku-Larrnggay Mulka Art Centre at Yirrkala and the Berndt Museum at the University of Western Australia.

In partnership with the 2013 Brisbane International Film Festival, the Gallery’s Australian Cinémathèque curated and presented the film program ‘Andrey Tarkovsky: Poet of the Cinema’. Other public screenings were held at the Gallery in association with the festival. The Gallery developed a new partnership with the Asia Pacific Screen Awards, showcasing selected 2013 award-nominated films and hosting special events with visiting international guests.

Guest lectures were made possible through relationships with local and interstate institutions. Two international artists exhibiting at Brisbane’s Institute of Modern Art — Simon Starling and Kerry Tribe — delivered lectures at GOMA; UK-based Richard Long presented an artist talk at GOMA through a project collaboration with Sydney’s Museum of Contemporary Art and Garvan Institute of Research; while US-based artist Tehching Hsieh presented a keynote lecture through a partnership with Carriageworks, Sydney.

The Gallery maintains reciprocal membership benefits with all state art galleries through membership of the Australian Federation of Friends of Museums (AFFM). QAGOMA’s Members Coordinator is the Queensland representative and Vice President of AFFM, and encourages regional Queensland galleries to become involved with AFFM.

Guests from the State Library of Queensland’s black&write! project facilitated QAGOMA Members Book Club discussions in July and August 2013, focusing on some of the themes presented in ‘My Country, I Still Call Australia Home’.

The Centre for Contemporary Art Conservation hosted two conservation interns from the University of Melbourne. Gallery conservators collaborated on research projects with the Centre for Cultural Materials Conservation, University of Melbourne, and were invited to examine student theses.

Government Partners

The Gallery partnered with state and federal government agencies to celebrate Australia’s diverse cultures. The Queensland Government provided important support for programs and initiatives throughout the year, including:

- Tourism and Events Queensland’s investment in ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’ recognised the significant contribution this exclusive-to-Brisbane exhibition made to cultural tourism, including its economic benefit to the state.
- Funding from the Department of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander and Multicultural Affairs created an opportunity for ‘Kangaroo Crew’ to tour regionally to ten remote Indigenous communities through QAGOMA’s Kids on Tour initiative.
- The Backing Indigenous Arts program provided support for Queensland artists Megan Cope and Gordon Hookey to participate in ‘My Country, I Still Call Australia Home: Contemporary Art from Black Australia’.

The Australian Government, through the Australia Council for the Arts, its arts funding and advisory board, and the Visual Arts and Crafts Strategy, provided ongoing funding for the development of APT8.

Cultural Precinct

QAGOMA contributes to a range of Cultural Precinct working groups focusing on programming, positioning, the digital precinct and infrastructure planning. In addition to working together on collection storage and wayfinding solutions, QAGOMA and precinct partners, the State Library of Queensland (SLQ), Queensland Museum (QM) and Queensland Performing Arts Centre (QPAC), collaborated on a range of programs:

- QAGOMA, SLQ and QM presented Memories from a Forgotten People, a project marking the contribution of Australian South Sea Islanders to Queensland over the last 150 years.
- In collaboration with the Department of the Premier and Cabinet, a Precinct Adventure Trail was presented during Queensland Week 2014.
- Jenimia Wyman’s ‘Pattern Bandits’ at GOMA’s Children’s Art Centre was featured in Out of the Box, the cross-precinct festival for children under eight.
The Gallery secured sponsorship and grant funding for a range of exhibitions and programs, and attracted more than $1.75 million in funding and over $1.38 million in contra marketing and promotional support.

- As part of Santos GLNG’s presenting sponsorship of ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’ and the Children’s Art Centre, the first Santos GLNG Day was held at GOMA. This successful initiative, featuring family-focused activities and giveaways, attracted more than 6900 visitors to GOMA on one day. In addition, 430 families took up the sponsored ticket offer to attend the exhibition.
- Audi Australia extended its three-year partnership with the Gallery until 2015, and was Principal Sponsor of ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’, as well as partner of the popular Audi GOMA Bar.
- Glencore (formerly Xstrata Coal Queensland) supported the presentation of three exhibitions in the Queensland Artists’ Gallery (QAG) and a regional touring workshop program as part of their ongoing commitment to promoting Queensland artists.
- PanAust, which sponsored ‘My Country, I Still Call Australia Home’, continued its partnership with the Gallery as Major Sponsor of ‘Harvest’.
- The Gallery extended its relationship with Virgin Australia, previously an ongoing Tourism and Media Partner, and welcomed them as Annual Airline Partner.
- Gadens continued its longstanding relationship with the Gallery as the Supporting Sponsor of ‘California Design 1930–1965: Living in a Modern Way’. The Gallery successfully nominated Gadens chair Paul Spiro for the 2013 Arts Law Centre of Australia’s Arts Community Pro Bono Award for his outstanding service to the Gallery and the QAGOMA Foundation.
- Yering Station, the Gallery’s Wine and Sparkling Partner, renewed its agreement, providing in-kind stock for exhibition opening events.

The Tim Fairfax Family Foundation (TFFF) provided support for ‘Cai Guo-Qiang Kids’ and ‘Kids on Tour’. Ongoing support from TFFF has been essential for the growth of the On Tour program and the success of the Gallery’s children’s publications.

Exhibition sponsors and partners are listed on pages 46–53.

Collaborate with tourism sector partners to attract attendance by key local, intrastate, interstate and international audiences.

Support from tourism partners assisted the Gallery to reach new audiences locally, nationally and internationally. These partners included Southern Cross Austereo, Adshel, Seven Network, ABC Radio National, Clemenger BBDO, Tourism and Events Queensland, Brisbane Marketing, Sofitel Hotel Brisbane, Brisbane Airport Corporation, Hilton Brisbane and Virgin Australia.

‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’ was a hero event for both the Tourism and Events Queensland summer interstate campaign targeting Sydney and Melbourne, and for Brisbane Marketing’s summer events marketing and media campaign in the intrastate market and Auckland. In addition, QAGOMA, Brisbane Marketing and Tourism and Events Queensland staged a media launch for the exhibition in Shanghai in September 2013. It was attended by more than 30 media and tourism representatives and generated significant international Chinese-language coverage, including Conde Nast Traveller (China), China Daily, Oriental Morning Post, China Times and the Shanghai Morning Post. Tourism and Events Queensland and Brisbane Marketing also supported significant interstate and international media visitation, especially by Chinese-language media. These partnerships have allowed the Gallery to build relationships with Chinese travel, media and consumer markets for future cultural tourism growth and initiatives.

Communicate about Gallery exhibitions and programming to audiences of diverse backgrounds.

Front-of-house

A new category of front-of-house staff was introduced with Visitor Service Officers (VSO) expanding on the traditional role of the Gallery Service Officer (GSO) to encourage engagement between visitors and floor staff.

VSOs actively promoted QAGOMA exhibitions and programs, cinema screenings, the Children’s Art Centre, and food and retail outlets with a view to maximising audience participation, accessibility and enjoyment.
VSOs used iPads to locate specific artworks in response to requests from visitors, provide instant information on current and upcoming exhibition and events, and assist with wayfinding around the Cultural Precinct and the Brisbane area.

Marketing

The Gallery communicated to diverse audiences through websites, social media, public relations and direct marketing campaigns, as well as via print, digital and outdoor advertising. Third party promotions through media partners Southern Cross Austereo, Adshel, Seven Network, ABC Radio National and Clemenger BBDO were also actively employed.

The Gallery’s campaign to increase visitation by Chinese audience members has been very successful. In addition to a national and international public relations and media campaign, the Gallery undertook advertising with Australian Chinese press and radio, as well as promotional activity and out-of-home advertising aimed at the Brisbane Chinese community. New relationships with Chinese inbound operators were established to drive visitation to the Gallery, predominantly focused on ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’. A higher-than-usual four per cent of visitors to the exhibition, or 9173 people, identified as being of Chinese ethnicity.

Media coverage generated for ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’ was valued by Media Measures at more than $10 million, with significant profile achieved in international outlets such as The New York Times, TIME magazine, South China Morning Post and Wall Street Journal and Asia.com.

Develop targeted programming, marketing and commercial services to attract new audiences and encourage philanthropy.

Programming

By exploring the themes of each exhibition, public programs brought new audiences to the Gallery on a regular basis.

• ‘Quilts 1700–1945’: Sunday Stitch-Ups featured suitcase rummages and stitching workshops with The Stitchery Collective, together with presentations by emerging practitioners discussing sustainable local business ideas.
• ‘California Design 1930–1965: Living in a Modern Way’: Endless Summer Sunday events drew on the exhibition’s themes with swing dancing classes and retro glamour styling demonstrations. California Design Up Late attracted music fans and design aficionados to live music performances and contemporary talks.

• ‘Trace: Performance and its Documents’: Trace Live was a full day of events devoted to performance. Performance artists and local dancers, as well as tertiary and emerging contemporary artists, were targeted through a networking event involving exhibiting artists and QAGOMA curators.

QAGOMA Members reached new audiences and enjoyed steady growth throughout the year. Major achievements included:

• Over 240 lapsed members renewed their memberships as part of on-site membership drives during the opening weekends of major exhibitions.
• A new Premium Membership category was introduced, which achieved double its target of new memberships.
• A membership renewal rate of 60 per cent — up seven per cent from the previous year.
• A four per cent growth in the overall Membership base.

Nine QAGOMA Foundation events were held during the year, and Foundation membership increased with 19 new members.

The Foundation 2014 Annual Appeal to acquire Ben Quilty’s Sergeant P. after Afghanistan 2012 attracted donations from 82 first-time Gallery donors.

Marketing

The Gallery’s online and social networking channels increased levels of engagement, discussion and attendance involving a diverse audience base. Digital assets were vital to the marketing and outreach success of major exhibitions, particularly ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’.

The Gallery undertook a new online audience development initiative involving video seeding. A short video introducing Cai Guo-Qiang to Australian audiences received over 147 000 views on YouTube, with 24 per cent of views achieved in the first week. The video also generated 2980 social media shares, ‘likes’ and mentions.

Social media growth:

• Twitter followers 38% increase
• Facebook fans 41% increase
• YouTube views 124% increase
• Instagram followers 1158% increase

(NB: Instagram was a new platform for the Gallery from April 2013)

Audiovisual interpretive material such as artist and curator interviews, performances and lectures were distributed via digital channels to accompany ‘Quilts 1700–1945’, ‘My Country, I Still Call Australia Home’, ‘California Design 1930–1965: Living in a Modern Way’ and ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’.
Commercial Services

QAGOMA is the only state gallery in Australia to operate its own food and beverage services, with all purchases from restaurants, cafes and catering services directly supporting the Gallery’s exhibitions, programs and the Collection. Commercial activities enhanced the visitor experience by offering an added dimension to exhibition attendance, for example, food, beverage and exhibition ticket packages for ‘Quilts 1700–1945’ and ‘California Design’.

The Gallery’s unique spaces and premier catering options provided an attractive offering for venue hire for corporate and private functions. Several event clients returned to the Gallery following positive experiences. Event hire attracted new audiences to the Gallery, including significant functions for interstate clients, one for over 1000 guests, during ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’. The Gallery was represented at interstate industry events with Brisbane Marketing to showcase event hosting opportunities for the Meetings, Incentives, Conferences, Events (MICE) market.

The Store expanded its range of online products with the addition of new book and merchandise categories. The Store also developed targeted promotional campaigns for online and educational sales.

Enrich visitor experience

HIGHLIGHTS

- GOMA Talks and Up Late presented vibrant discussions and live music after dark.
- Delivered successful pilot program of tours for people who live with dementia in association with Alzheimer’s Australia.
- ‘Harvest: Art, Film + Food’ combined an exhibition, film program, publication and art-inspired menus.

Present a range of diverse and innovative public programs and related initiatives, including those presented by the Children’s Art Centre.

Public Programs

Public programs and events — lectures, tours, discussions and performances, as well as GOMA Talks and Up Late — encouraged visitors of all ages to make the most of their Gallery experience. These events enlisted the expertise of local presenters, visiting guests, performers and artists; regional, interstate and international audiences took advantage of increased access to programs via live webcasting and social media.

Audiences enhanced their experience of major exhibitions by attending opening weekend programs featuring exhibiting artists and guest speakers. Opening weekend programs were held for ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’, ‘California Design 1930–1965: Living in a Modern Way’ and ‘Harvest’.

The Gallery’s tenth presentation of Up Late, during ‘California Design 1930–1965: Living in a Modern Way’, attracted over 5000 visitors over six Friday nights. California-inspired cuisine, design talks and performances by international and national musicians were on offer as part of Up Late.

GOMA Talks, the free interactive evening discussion series, continued to foster debate and discussion and was presented in partnership with ABC Radio National during ‘My Country, I Still Call Australia Home: Contemporary Art from Black Australia’. The talks were webcast live and audience members contributed to the discussions via Twitter and SMS. The Audi GOMA Bar was open for each event and entertainment was provided by a local DJ.

The Glencore Xstrata Queensland Regional Touring Program presented hands-on workshops by The Stitchery Collective at six venues in July 2013. Over 100 students learned about creative sustainable ideas and screen-printing techniques.
Members

More than 8000 QAGOMA Members and their guests experienced an enhanced level of Gallery engagement through 116 programs during the year. These included curatorial and guest lectures, discussion groups, after-hours access, hands-on workshops led by local artists, Tai Chi classes, Children’s Art Centre activity trials and workshops for children. Unique dining offerings for Members included exhibition-themed degustation events, food and wine tastings and private breakfasts. Members programs also included monthly lunches and lectures, book club and new member orientation sessions.

Children’s Art Centre

For over 15 years, exhibitions for young visitors developed in collaboration with contemporary artists have made the QAGOMA Children’s Art Centre a world leader in the presentation of art experiences for children and families.

In 2013–14, the Children’s Art Centre presented:

- ‘Gordon Hookey: Kangaroo Crew’, an interactive artist project exploring Hookey’s story The Sacred Hill through hands-on and multimedia activities.
- ‘Cai Guo-Qiang Kids: Let’s Create an Exhibition with a Boy Named Cai’ in association with ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’.
- ‘Jemima Wyman: Pattern Bandits’, the sixth in the Gallery’s series of contemporary Australian artist commissions for children.

For more information on Children’s Art Centre’s exhibitions and projects, see pages 51–52.

‘Kangaroo Crew on Tour’ presented activities to 739 children and their carers in ten Indigenous communities throughout Queensland.

‘Kids on Tour: Cai Guo-Qiang’ toured to more than 80 regional and remote Queensland galleries, community centres, schools and hospitals in April and May 2014; more than 11,000 children and adults participated in the activities on offer.

The popular Toddler Tuesday program introduced 2058 young visitors aged 18 months to four years to works from the Gallery’s Collection.

The mask-making activity Make A Roo, part of the ‘Gordon Hookey: Kangaroo Crew’ exhibition, was presented at NAIDOC Family Fun Day 2013 (Brisbane, 12 July) and the Art with Altitude Festival (Brisbane Airport, 24–27 October 2013).

Highlight the visual arts as an interconnected part of broader culture relevant to the lives of a wide audience, including children, young people and seniors.

During the year, several exhibitions addressed contemporary issues highlighting the significance of visual art in our lives:

- ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’ was underpinned by the theme of humanity’s relationship with the environment.
- ‘Harvest’ investigated a topic common to every culture, lifestyle and demographic: what and how do we eat?
- ‘Quilts 1700–1945’ and ‘California Design 1930–1965: Living in a Modern Way’ examined the historical forces influencing craft and design and the relevance of these factors to the present day.

The Gallery’s Volunteer Guides enhanced the visitor experience with 2349 free tours of exhibitions and the Collection for 21,266 people, including 23 tours for 127 visitors with special needs (hearing impaired, vision impaired and Deaf communities).

Commencing in April 2014, a pilot program of volunteer-guided discussion-based tours designed specifically for people living with dementia was undertaken in association with Alzheimer’s Australia. Five tours were conducted for 20 visitors and their carers.

The Gallery’s food and beverage services also enhanced the visitor experience by providing connections to art and ideas through themed food and beverage offerings. The Executive Chef created menus responding to the themes of exhibitions such as ‘My Country, I Still Call Australia Home’, Quilts 1700–1945; ‘California Design 1930–1965: Living in a Modern Way’, ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’ and ‘Transparent: Watercolour in Queensland 1850s–1980s’. Artist Jemima Wyman collaborated with the Executive Chef to present a menu item inspired by her favourite childhood meal (hunza pie) at the GOMA Cafe during ‘Pattern Bandits’.

Specific audiences were offered insights into exhibitions:

- QAGOMA 50+ invited visitors over 50 to participate in free, enriching events including after-hours lectures and talks, conversations with curators, short courses, artist workshops and presentations on contemporary museology.
• QAGOMA Emerging Creatives and QAGOMA Teens gave young people access to industry experts and artist workshops, as well as insights into the Gallery’s exhibitions and displays.

• The annual Melville Haysom Memorial Art Scholarship was awarded to emerging Brisbane artist duo Clark Beaumont, providing financial support and access to the Gallery’s resources to assist in the completion of a specific project.

Deliver educational programs and services to schools, universities and the broader education sector.

The Gallery made art accessible through educational programs, resources and services to schools, universities and the broader community. Gallery staff met regularly with a focus group comprising primary and secondary teachers to discuss education programs and student resources.

Over 31,200 primary, secondary and tertiary students attended the Gallery as part of booked education groups. School student visitation during term one was especially strong, with ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’ being the most visited exhibition. Several curator-led tours were conducted for tertiary groups for this exhibition.

Resources

The Gallery developed exhibition- and Collection-based education resources aligned with the Australian Curriculum for use in the classroom and during Gallery visits.

Nine different education resources — worksheets, teacher notes and videos addressing curriculum priorities for primary and secondary levels — assisted teachers in facilitating both classroom lessons and Gallery visits. More than 12,800 copies of the ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’ student worksheets and 750 copies of the teacher notes were distributed to attending primary and secondary classes. Student worksheets featured QR codes providing links to informative artist and exhibition videos.

The QAGOMA Collection Education Resource was expanded to introduce primary and secondary students to artists and themes in the Gallery’s Australian art and Indigenous Australian art collections. This online resource allowed students and teachers to generate customised worksheets ideal for self-guided Gallery visits and for use in the classroom.

A room brochure incorporating educational material was created for the regional tour of ‘Ever Present: Photographs from the Queensland Art Gallery Collection 1850–1975’.

Programs

Over 1900 students were provided with behind-the-scenes insights into the artist’s practice in a series of 20 illustrated talks by Gallery curators as part of a free secondary school program for ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’.

The Gallery’s Look Out professional development program for teachers, which included curatorial talks, panel discussions, artist- and teacher-led workshops and exhibition viewings, was attended by 207 educators.

A panel discussion exploring ‘My Country, I Still Call Australia Home: Contemporary Art from Black Australia’ with exhibition curator Bruce McLean; Julie Ewington, former Curatorial Manager, Australian Art; and artists Megan Cope and Dale Harding highlighted themes and ideas for teachers to investigate in the classroom. In addition, a workshop with Megan Cope provided practical ideas for investigating exhibition themes with students.

Exclusive teacher viewings and Look Out programs in conjunction with ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’ included a curatorial floor talk, insights into the contemporary Chinese tea ceremony, behind-the-scenes talks and teacher-led workshops focusing on activities for the classroom.

The annual ‘Creative Generation Excellence Awards in Visual Art’ exhibition — an initiative of the Queensland Government Department of Education, Training and Employment to showcase outstanding achievement by senior visual art students from schools throughout Queensland — was seen by 5754 students as part of class visits.

Exhibitions

QAGOMA Foundation Appeal 2013
The Apocalypse: Albrecht Dürer
11 May – 21 July 2013 | QAG

Albrecht Dürer’s woodcuts illustrating the Revelation of St. John revolutionised the graphic arts in Europe and established Dürer’s reputation as the most influential and collected artist of the northern Renaissance. This display was presented as part of the Foundation Appeal to complete the Gallery’s holdings by acquiring the six prints not yet held in the Collection.

William Robinson
11 May – 7 October 2013 | QAG

This display in the QAG Watermall featured two paintings and a group of delicate pastels by Queensland’s William Robinson, one of the most celebrated landscape artists working in Australia today.

Creative Generation Excellence Awards in Visual Art 2013
11 May – 11 August 2013 | GOMA

Organised by the Department of Education, Training and Employment and supported by QAGOMA, this annual initiative showcased the outstanding achievements of senior visual art students from schools throughout Queensland.

Voice and Reason
18 May 2013 – 21 April 2014 | GOMA

Since the colonial era, Indigenous artists have actively examined the conversations and conflicts involving their ancestors and settlers in Australia. Their works affirm the place of their peoples’ cultures in interactions involving different histories and beliefs. ‘Voice and Reason’ drew on the Gallery’s Collection to highlight contrasting voices and to draw attention to the reasoning, knowledge and experience informing the work of Indigenous artists, some in dialogue with works by non-Indigenous artists.

Earth and Elsewhere: Contemporary Works from the Collection
25 May 2013 – 27 January 2014 | GOMA

‘Earth and Elsewhere’ brought together works by Australian and international artists from the Gallery’s contemporary collections that highlighted the way artists frame the past and explore delicate connections between memory, history and empathy.

Death and Life: rakuny ga walinga: Contemporary Arnhem Land Art
25 May – 1 September 2013 | GOMA

The Gallery’s first Collection-based exhibition dedicated to contemporary art from Arnhem Land featured bark paintings, hollow log memorial poles, sculptures and weavings exploring the circulatory nature of death and life, an idea integral to Arnhem Land art. The arrangement of works reflected artists’ clan affiliations and languages, and their connections with country. The centrepiece yingapungapu sand sculpture was installed at GOMA in a special ceremony by artists from Yirrkala.

My Country, I Still Call Australia Home: Contemporary Art from Black Australia
1 June – 7 October 2013 | GOMA

‘My Country, I Still Call Australia Home: Contemporary Art from Black Australia’ was the Gallery’s most extensive exhibition of contemporary art by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artists to date. The exhibition explored three central themes — Indigenous views of history (My history), contemporary politics and experiences (My life), and connections to place (My country).

Sugar
8 June – 13 October 2013 | QAG

‘Sugar’ explored the industry that first brought South Sea Islanders to Australia. It featured historical photographs of South Sea Islanders working in Queensland from the collections of QAGOMA and the State Library of Queensland, along with contemporary works. These were accompanied by recordings of stories and music exploring historical and contemporary Australian South Sea Islander experiences.
Ever Present: Photographs from the Queensland Art Gallery Collection 1850–1975
8 June – 13 October 2013 | QAG

This exhibition presented works by unknown nineteenth-century photographers alongside iconic images by some of the masters of the twentieth century, such as Walker Evans, Henri Cartier-Bresson and Diane Arbus. Images from photography’s early years have a peculiar temporality, but also deliver the past to us in a very immediate and familiar way, making the past ‘ever present’.

Quilts 1700–1945
15 June – 22 September 2013 | QAG | Ticketed exhibition

‘Quilts 1700–1945’ from the Victoria and Albert Museum, London, offered visitors an unprecedented opportunity to see over 30 quilted and patchworked bed covers and bed hangings, as well as sewing accessories, created over a period of two-and-a-half centuries. In addition, the exhibition provided a rare chance to view The Rajah quilt 1841 — generously on loan from the National Gallery of Australia, Canberra — sewn by women on board the convict ship HMS Rajah, during their transportation to Van Diemen’s Land (Tasmania) in 1841.

Glass from the Queensland Art Gallery Collection
22 June 2013 – 24 August 2014 | QAG

A diverse selection of works from the Collection highlighted the magical qualities of glass, which until the middle of the nineteenth century was a rare commodity for the privileged few.

Ruth Stoneley: A Stitch in Time
13 July – 7 October 2013 | QAG

As part of the Glencore Queensland Artists’ Gallery program, this exhibition of contemporary quilts by leading Brisbane quilt-maker and teacher Ruth Stoneley (1940–2007) showcased exemplars of her work, from early experimentations with the contained patterns of traditional quilts to the free-flowing, abstract and expressive works of her later years.

Everyday Magic
7 September 2013 – 16 March 2014 | GOMA

‘Everyday Magic’ drew from the Gallery’s contemporary collections to explore how everyday materials and situations can be transformed into art. These works could be said to turn the banal on its head, making audiences laugh or re-evaluate commonly accepted notions about art.

Kathy Temin My monument: White forest 2008
28 September 2013 – 16 February 2014 | GOMA

Evoking Dr Seuss’s The Lorax, Kathy Temin’s My monument: White forest 2008 is an immersive environment of cartoon-like trees created from fluffy white fabric set against a sky-blue background. The beauty of the installation suggests a fantasy world of excess, yet Temin’s soft materials are earthly and physical.

Scott Redford and Ed Ruscha: Gold Coast Meets West Coast
18 October 2013 – 23 March 2014 | QAG

This display emphasised how Scott Redford’s iconography of the Gold Coast and Ed Ruscha’s work memorialising late twentieth-century California draw on urban and suburban landscapes and explore the intersections between art and society in postwar Queensland and California.

Pleasure of Place: Photographs by Richard Stringer
26 October 2013 – 18 March 2014 | QAG

This Glencore Queensland Artists’ Gallery program exhibition acknowledged the artistic achievements and significant body of work developed by renowned Queensland photographer and teacher Richard Stringer over 40 years. It explored the varied subjects that have inspired Stringer, including landscapes, industrial archaeology and the urban environment, as well as his lifelong work documenting Queensland’s built environment.

Sponsored by Glencore
Bea Maddock
2 November 2013 – 16 February 2014 | GOMA

Bea Maddock’s magnum opus acknowledging Tasmania’s Indigenous people, TERRA SPIRITUS … with a darker shade of pale 1993–98 comprises 51 sheets of ochre on paper. This display was accompanied by a group of exquisite contemporary Aboriginal shell necklaces and other works by Maddock exploring Tasmania’s history.

Fred Williams: Painter, Printmaker
2 November 2013 – 16 March 2014 | QAG

Featured in this Collection display were Fred Williams’s distinctive depictions of the Australian bush — which have transformed our way of seeing the Australian landscape — and an extraordinary body of prints, including his delightful music hall images of 1950s London.

California Design 1930–1965: Living in a Modern Way
2 November 2013 – 9 February 2014 | QAG | Ticketed exhibition

This exhibition from the Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) introduced Australian audiences to a broad spectrum of industrial, architectural, commercial, fashion and craft design from mid-century California. To illustrate how California was an ideal incubator for a specific strand of Modernism, the exhibition was presented in four thematic sections exploring the Shaping, Making, Living and Selling of the ideas and objects of California. The exhibition’s 260 works included a 1964 Studebaker Avanti car and a 1936 Airstream ‘Clipper’ trailer, together with furniture, fabrics, ceramics, domestic ware, architectural design, clothing and graphic design.

Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth
23 November 2013 – 11 May 2014 | GOMA | Ticketed exhibition

‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’ was the first solo exhibition in Australia for Cai Guo-Qiang, the internationally acclaimed artist who has a long association with the Gallery through the Asia Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art series of exhibitions. ‘Falling Back to Earth’ featured two new major commissions inspired by Cai’s experiences of the landscapes of Queensland: Heritage 2013, featuring 99 replicas of animals from around the world, drinking from a blue lake surrounded by pristine white sand, was acquired for the Collection with the generous support of benefactor Win Schubert, AO, and the QAGOMA Foundation; while Eucalyptus 2013 was a 31-metre-high tree (transplanted from land earmarked for urban development) installed horizontally in GOMA’s Long Gallery.

On display in Australia for the first time was Head On 2006, the third major installation and one of Cai’s signature works. A striking installation of 99 replica wolves leaping en masse into a glass wall, it was on loan from the Deutsche Bank Collection. In addition, the Tea Pavilion, located at the heart of the exhibition, invited visitors to learn about the significance of Chinese tea by enjoying tastings as part of gongfu tea ceremonies.

A detailed chronology of Cai’s work, including early work, photographs and artefacts from the artist’s private collection and the QAGOMA Research Library, also featured in the exhibition and offered insights into Cai’s history as an artist and his relationship with the Gallery.
Richard Long: Ring of Stones
22 February – 20 July 2014 | QAG

Ring of Stones 1982, a circular arrangement of 258 large stones, is an example of artist Richard Long’s ongoing engagement with the landscape, evoking its natural cycles and rhythms.

Trace: Performance and its Documents
22 February – 6 October 2014 | GOMA

‘Trace’ drew out relationships between performance and its documentation, bringing together new commissions with 70 historical and contemporary works from the Gallery’s Collection. The works span numerous cultural contexts and types of performance, including feats of endurance, repetitive actions, shamanistic rituals and vaudevillian acts.

Seen + Heard: Works and Multiples from the Collection
15 March – 3 August 2014 | GOMA

‘Seen + Heard’ presented works from the Collection that directly incorporate or indirectly refer to sound and music, demonstrating the diverse lines of influence between pop music, wider popular culture and visual art. It explored this nexus in over 120 historical and contemporary works by more than 30 artists, all drawing on the interaction of sound and music, image and text, object and sculpture, and video and the moving image.

Transparent: Watercolour in Queensland 1850s–1980s
22 March – 20 July 2014 | QAG

‘Transparent’ explored the history of watercolour painting in Queensland. The exhibition brought together over 150 watercolours from the Gallery’s Collection, demonstrating the medium’s important role in the state’s visual history from its earliest colonial beginnings to more recent interpretations. Used by early settlers to depict the landscape, by later artists to evoke the growing city of Brisbane and by wartime artists to record daily activities, the medium of watercolour is portable and adaptable, perfect for capturing quick impressions.

Ah Xian: Heavy Wounds
29 March – 3 August 2014 | QAG

‘Heavy Wounds’ is an important suite of early paintings by Chinese-born Australian artist Ah Xian, generously gifted by the artist and donors. It draws on the iconography of socialist realist first aid posters from China’s Cultural Revolution (1966–76) and conveys experiences of trauma and the process of healing.

Creative Generation Excellence Awards in Visual Art 2014
5 April – 22 June 2014 | GOMA

This annual exhibition, an initiative of the Department of Education, Training and Employment and supported by QAGOMA, showcased the outstanding achievements of senior visual art students from schools throughout Queensland.

Sam Fullbrook: Delicate Beauty
5 April – 10 August 2014 | QAG

The third exhibition in the Glencore Queensland Artists’ Gallery program for the year was the first major exhibition in almost 20 years of the work of one of Australia’s most influential postwar painters, Sam Fullbrook (1922–2004). The exhibition built on a significant group of works from the Gallery’s Collection, augmented by significant public and private loans, and highlighted the evocative, timeless work of this highly skilled colourist and tonalist.

Yirrkala Drawings
12 April – 13 July 2014 | QAG

Developed by the Art Gallery of New South Wales in association with Buku-Larrnggay Mulka Art Centre at Yirrkala and the Berndt Museum at the University of Western Australia, ‘Yirrkala Drawings’ was the first major exhibition of a group of drawings by senior Aboriginal leaders and bark painters from Yirrkala in north-east Arnhem Land. These exuberant drawings — produced in 1946–47 with coloured crayons and brown paper provided by young anthropologists Ronald M Berndt and Catherine H Berndt — express the intricacies of Yolngu culture, clan relationships and connection to country.
Terrain: Indigenous Australian Objects and Representations
10 May 2014 – 6 September 2015 | GOMA

‘Terrain’ explored the powerful aesthetic and cultural influences that the land represents for Australia’s Indigenous artists through the colours, textures, lines and forms of painting, weaving, body adornment and sculpture drawn from the Gallery’s Collection.

Harvest
28 June – 21 September 2014 | GOMA

‘Harvest’ presented more than 150 historical and contemporary works from the Gallery’s Collection highlighting the representation of food and relationships with land. The centrepiece of the exhibition was a large installation of Biosphere works by Tomás Saraceno, acquired by the Gallery with the generous support of Tim Fairfax, AC. The exhibition was presented in association with the film program ‘Harvest: Food on Film’.

Works by one of Australia’s most recognised and awarded landscape artists, Lloyd Rees (1895–1988), continued a tour of 12 regional Queensland venues. The exhibition demonstrated the varied subjects that inspired Rees, including architecture, interiors, landscapes, figures and self-portraits, and was drawn from the exhibition displayed at QAG in 2011.

‘My Country: Contemporary Art from Black Australia’
Auckland Art Gallery Toi o Tāmaki, New Zealand
28 March – 17 August 2014

Drawn from the exhibition presented at GOMA in 2013, nearly 100 works by over 40 artists from the Gallery’s Collection toured to New Zealand representing the largest and most significant exhibition of contemporary Indigenous Australian art ever shown in that country. The exhibition showcased the breadth of recent work by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artists, and the connections the artists have with their land and nation, and was accompanied by the QAGOMA Children’s Art Centre exhibition ‘Gordon Hookey: Kangaroo Crew’.

Children’s Art Centre exhibitions and projects

Gordon Hookey: Kangaroo Crew
1 June 2013 – 27 January 2014 | GOMA

‘Kangaroo Crew’ was an interactive artist project created especially for children and families by Indigenous Australian artist Gordon Hookey (Waanyi people), based on the artist’s original story and paintings, The Sacred Hill. The project involved hands-on and multimedia interactives and a storybook illustrated with the artist’s paintings.

Cai Guo-Qiang Kids: Let’s Create an Exhibition with a Boy Named Cai
23 November 2013 – 11 May 2014 | GOMA

An interactive artist project produced to coincide with ‘Cai Guo Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’, ‘Let’s Create an Exhibition with a Boy Named Cai’ invited children to engage with the artist’s ideas and artworks through hands-on and multimedia activities. Young visitors learned about the artist’s working methods to create their own exhibition by making and displaying objects in miniature gallery spaces, and creating multimedia gunpowder drawings and simulated explosion events.

Developed by senior Japanese artist Yayoi Kusama in collaboration with the Queensland Art Gallery for ‘APT 2002: Asia Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art’, The obliteration room invites visitors to plaster a completely white room with a plethora of multicoloured dots. Restaged in 2011 for the artist’s solo exhibition at GOMA, this immensely popular installation has continued to tour since, as part of a number of international exhibitions.

Drawn from the exhibition at QAG in 2013, ‘Ever Present’ presented a broadly chronological history of photography from 1850 to 1975. Reflecting the somewhat arbitrary nature of photography’s beginnings, the exhibition presented pictorial, documentary, modernist and street photography by unknown nineteenth-century practitioners alongside iconic images by renowned photographers of the twentieth century.

Developed by senior Japanese artist Yayoi Kusama in collaboration with the Queensland Art Gallery for ‘APT 2002: Asia Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art’, The obliteration room invites visitors to plaster a completely white room with a plethora of multicoloured dots. Restaged in 2011 for the artist’s solo exhibition at GOMA, this immensely popular installation has continued to tour since, as part of a number of international exhibitions.
In the sixth exhibition in the Children’s Art Centre’s series of contemporary Australian artist commissions, Los Angeles-based Australian artist Jemima Wyman shared her interest in the relationships involving people, pattern and architecture. A brightly coloured and highly patterned space saw children explore patterns — kaleidoscopes, tessellations, camouflage and harlequin designs — through hands-on and multimedia activities.

Oscar Micheaux: Pioneer of Black Cinema
12 July – 4 August 2013

This program celebrated the work of Oscar Micheaux, the first major African-American filmmaker and the most prominent producer of ‘race films’ in the United States. The program included three silent films with live piano accompaniment composed and performed by Paul Hankinson.

Action, Hong Kong Style
6 September – 8 November 2013 | Ticketed program

A landmark retrospective of 70 films tracing the genesis of Hong Kong’s highly influential action cinema. The program ranged from early wuxia swordplay films with their Chinese opera roots to the new kung fu cinema of the late 1960s and 1970s, to the ‘bullet ballet’ of the 1980s and 1990s, and beyond to the present day. It profiled cult films and figures such as Bruce Lee, Jackie Chan, Chow Yun Fat and Sammo Hung, as well as showcasing lesser known films and actors deserving of broader recognition. The retrospective pointed to the extraordinary reach of signature Hong Kong styles and stars worldwide.

Brought to Light: After the Curfew
1 September 2013

A special screening of the 2012 restoration of Usmar Ismail’s classic of Indonesian cinema Lewat Djam Malam (After the Curfew) 1954 was presented by the Gallery.

Brought to Light: Araya
9–10 November 2013

The Gallery presented Australian premiere screenings of the recent restoration of the landmark Venezuelan film Araya 1959 by leading Latin American filmmaker Margot Benacerraf.

Live Music and Film: Shiraz
10 November 2013

A special screening of Franz Osten and Himanshu Rai’s beloved silent film Shiraz 1928 was presented and featured live accompaniment by DVA (Tunji Beier and Linsey Pollak), who created a score inspired by the musical traditions of southern India.
Andrey Tarkovsky: Poet of the Cinema
13–24 November 2013

A complete retrospective of the films of Andrey Tarkovsky, one of the most celebrated and visionary figures in the history of cinema, was presented in association with the 2013 Brisbane International Film Festival. The program included Tarkovsky’s rarely seen early short films, a number of important documentaries, and all seven of the filmmaker’s features.

Sadie Benning: Bedroom Eyes
29–30 November 2013

In association with the exhibition ‘Earth and Elsewhere: Contemporary Works from the Collection’, a special focus on the autobiographical videos of American artist Sadie Benning, acclaimed for their DIY aesthetic and powerful narratives of teenage self-awareness, was presented by the Gallery.

Patricio Guzmán
13–22 December 2013

Presented in association with ‘Earth and Elsewhere: Contemporary Works from the Collection’, this retrospective of Chilean filmmaker Patricio Guzmán, one of the leading voices in South American cinema, explored the modern history of Chile — Salvador Allende’s attempts to establish democratic socialism in the early 1970s, the ensuing military coup in 1973, and the rule of the military junta until 1990.

Fairytales and Fables
10 January – 30 March 2014

‘Fairytales and Fables’ considered the ability of fantastic adventures and cautionary tales to enchant, enthrall and unnerve. A major survey of the genre, the program went beyond Disney adaptations, which dominate contemporary understandings of fairytales, to delve into wider filmic interpretations of European tales and their influence on these genres in North America and beyond. ‘Fairytales and Fables’ also featured six silent films with live musical accompaniment. Two special screenings of The Adventures of Prince Achmed 1926 were given musical accompaniment by Kim Cunio and Heather Lee, who combined medieval European and Arabic sounds with melodies from Armenia, Syria and India.

Brought to Light: Manila in the Claws of Light
15 February 2014

A special screening of the 2013 restoration of Lino Brocka’s Maynila Sa Mga Kuko Ng Liwanag (Manila in the Claws of Light) 1975, considered one of the most significant films in Filipino cinema history, was presented at the Gallery.

The Last of England: Thatcherism and British Cinema
4 April – 25 June 2014

The social, economic and political life of the United Kingdom under Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher provided the background for this major survey of British cinema. The program began with a retrospective of the work of artist and filmmaker Derek Jarman, before showcasing films forming a series of thematic programs — exploring life in postwar Britain, Thatcher-era costume dramas, the darker vision of life in science fiction and the influential role of television productions and the British Workshop movement.

Orson Welles: A Retrospective
5 April – 28 May 2014 | Ticketed program

A complete retrospective celebrated Orson Welles, acclaimed filmmaker, actor, theatre director, screenwriter and producer, and one of the most influential and charismatic figures in North American cinema. The program included the 12 feature-length films and two documentaries completed during Welles’s five-decade career, alongside a selection of his film and television appearances and radio broadcasts.

Live Music and Film: The Last Days of Pompeii
1 June 2014

A special event in association with Italian Week 2014 presented the colour restoration of the 35mm print of Carmine Gallone and Amleto Palermi’s Gli ultimi giorni di Pompei (The Last Days of Pompeii) 1926; live musical accompaniment was provided by leading silent film pianist Mauro Colombis.

Brought to Light: Inferno
1 June 2014

A screening of the centenary restoration of Italy’s first feature-length film Inferno 1911, adapted from the first canto of Dante’s Divine Comedy, was presented with live musical accompaniment by pianist Mauro Colombis.

Performance measures

These measures assess QAGOMA’s performance against its strategic objectives. To develop appropriate measures and targets, the Gallery benchmarks aspects of its performance and activities against other national and international arts institutions.

As part of the development of its Strategic Plan 2014–19, a number of new performance measures will be introduced for the forthcoming year.

Variance reporting

1 From 1 July 2014, QAGOMA will move from a four-point to a five-point scale satisfaction measurement framework, which includes a neutral response option. This is expected to have a modest effect on measured levels of satisfaction. The satisfaction measurement framework is the preferred method of calculation across Queensland Government agencies.

2 The 2013–14 estimated Actual which was reported in the Service Delivery Statement was 95 per cent.

3 This measure is being discontinued due to its narrow focus on attendance to ticketed exhibitions, which is only one of the services provided to the community and one of several revenue streams generated by the Gallery.

4 This new measure encompasses all Gallery services and provides a more accurate snapshot of service delivery efficiency, including commercial approaches. It aligns with the Government proposal, through the Cultural Precinct Strategy, to develop common measures for performance across the arts statutory bodies.

5 This performance indicator is discontinued in the Strategic Plan 2014–19.

6 This is a new performance indicator, introduced in the Strategic Plan 2014–19.

PROPOSED FORWARD OPERATIONS

Strategic Plan 2014–19

Vision
To be the leading institution for the contemporary art of Australia, Asia and the Pacific.

Mission
To engage people with art and artists through memorable and transformative experiences onsite and online.

Principles
• Access for all
• Recognition of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples
• Leadership through research, learning and innovation
• Commitment to a sustainable, collaborative and inclusive culture.

Objectives
1 Collection and exhibitions
Build Queensland’s globally significant Collection and deliver compelling exhibitions.

Strategies
1.1 Develop the Collection, with a focus on acquiring, presenting and touring contemporary art from Australia, Asia and the Pacific, and build on the Gallery’s commitment to Queensland art and artists.

1.2 Curate memorable, dynamic and diverse exhibitions, Children’s Art Centre projects and Australian Cinémathèque programs, including bringing major international and national art and artists to Queensland.

1.3 Strengthen Queensland’s connections with Asia and the Pacific through continued innovation and development of the Asia Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art (APT), the Gallery’s signature exhibition series.

1.4 Take a leading role in scholarly and professional research and debate in the arts and share knowledge broadly within the arts sector and the community.

2 Audiences and engagement
Connect people with the enduring power of art and ideas.

Strategies
2.1 Deepen engagement with art, artists and ideas by offering exceptional experiences onsite and online.

2.2 Encourage lifelong learning for people of all ages and abilities through accessible, interactive, social and digital educational environments.

2.3 Expand the Gallery’s reach through touring, programming and digital initiatives for regional, national, international and online audiences.

2.4 Develop diverse audiences and support Queensland’s arts community through targeted research and engagement, innovative program delivery and ongoing evaluation.

3 Partnerships and practices
Build our community of partners and organisational capability to deliver the best value for Queensland.

Strategies
3.1 Collaborate with leading international art museums, Queensland Government, Cultural Precinct, arts, tourism and media partners to present major exhibitions and high-quality cultural experiences that contribute to the state’s social, economic and tourism targets.

3.2 Initiate new giving programs through the QAGOMA Foundation to increase philanthropic support for an inspiring and ambitious program.

3.3 Develop sustainable sources of revenue through innovative fundraising, sponsorship and commercial business models.

3.4 Collaborate with institutional and knowledge partners to develop audiences and promote understanding of art.

3.5 Demonstrate leadership within the arts sector and sustain a collaborative, innovative and inclusive organisation.
Operational Plan 2014–15

The Queensland Art Gallery’s Operational Plan 2014–15 details key undertakings proposed for the period 1 July 2014 to 30 June 2015 in support of the goals identified in the Strategic Plan 2014–15.

These operations include:

• Collecting
• Exhibition programming — including free and ticketed exhibitions, solo exhibitions by Queensland artists and a major survey of Queensland art in 2015–16
• Australian Cinémathèque programs
• Children’s Art Centre exhibitions
• Development of ‘The 8th Asia Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art’
• Public programs
• Learning and education priorities
• Research and publishing
• Regional, national and international touring and outreach
• Audience development
• Digital engagement
• Commercial services
• Sponsorship and fundraising
• Collection storage
• Collection management and digitisation
• Contribution to the Cultural Precinct Strategy.

Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees

The Queensland Art Gallery Act 1987 provides that the Board consists of the number of members appointed by the Governor in Council. In appointing a member, regard must be had to the person’s ability to contribute to the board’s performance and the implementation of its strategic and operational plans. A person is not eligible for appointment as a member if the person is not able to manage a corporation under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth). Members are appointed for terms of not more than three years and are eligible for reappointment upon expiry of their terms. Members are appointed on the conditions decided by the Governor in Council.

Terms of appointment for all Board members came to an end during the year. Subsequently, four members were reappointed and three new appointments were made by the Governor in Council, all commencing on 6 March 2014. Conditions of appointment were in accordance with Remunerations Procedures for Part-Time Chairs and Members of Queensland Government Boards.

During the year, the Board met six times and held two strategic workshops.

Executive management

Director

The Director is appointed as Director of the Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art by the Governor in Council upon recommendation by the Minister for the Arts approved by the Board. The Director is appointed for a term of not more than five years under the Queensland Art Gallery Act 1987 and is eligible for reappointment upon expiry of the term.

DIRECTOR

Chris Saines, CNZM

Chris Saines has worked for over 30 years in leading galleries in Australia and New Zealand as director, curatorial and collection manager, educator and curator. He was Director of Auckland Art Gallery Toi o Tāmaki for 17 years, a longstanding member of the Museums Australia National Council and Foundation Chair of Museums Aotearoa. He was a member of Auckland’s Advisory Panel for Public Art, judged Australia’s largest sculpture prize, the McClelland Award, has been a member of the selection panel for New Zealand’s representation at the Venice Biennale, and is an alumnus of the J Paul Getty Trust’s Museum Management Institute. In 2012, he was made a Companion of the New Zealand Order of Merit (CNZM) for services to the arts.

DEPUTY DIRECTOR, DEVELOPMENT AND COMMERCIAL SERVICES

Celestine Doyle

Celestine Doyle first worked at the Gallery from 1987 to 1996. She returned to the Gallery as an advisor in 2002, and then took up the role of Manager, Marketing and Communications, in 2007. In 2010, she joined the Gallery’s Executive Management Team, leading the Gallery’s two-site audience-focused marketing, communications, business development, tourism and brand strategy activities. As Deputy Director since 2012, she has also had responsibility for the Gallery’s commercial services and strategies. Celestine has more than 30 years’ experience working in the arts, design, environmental and health sectors in marketing, communications and business development roles in Brisbane and Melbourne.

DEPUTY DIRECTOR, COLLECTION AND EXHIBITIONS

Maud Page

Maud Page oversees all aspects of the Gallery’s curatorial activities, and is directly responsible for the management and development of the Gallery’s Collection. She has been instrumental in the realisation of major exhibitions and projects, including ‘Cai Guo-Qiang: Falling Back to Earth’ and ‘My Country, I Still Call Australia Home: Contemporary Art from Black Australia’. Maud joined the Gallery in 2002 and was Senior Curator, Contemporary Pacific Art, prior to taking up her executive management position. She has been a member of the curatorial team for the Asia Pacific Triennial of Contemporary Art since 2002, and has written and lectured extensively, including teaching museum studies at Sydney University. Maud contributes regularly to Australian art journals and was a member of the curatorial team for the Musée du Quai Branly’s Photoquai Biennial in Paris in 2009 and 2011.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, LEARNING AND PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT

Simon Wright

Simon Wright has held curatorial and management positions in private, commercial and public galleries and museums since 1993. Prior to joining the Gallery’s Executive Management Team, he was Director of Griffith Artworks + Griffith University Art Gallery (2005–12). He has received a Museums Australia Gallery and Museum Achievement Award (2004–05), and a National Australia Bank Partnering Award (Queensland) at the Australia Business Arts Foundation Awards (2006). In 2009, he was appointed to the Commissioner’s Council for Australia at the 53rd Venice Biennale, and has served as a member of the 54th and 55th Venice Biennale Champion’s Program for Australia. In 2012, he was on the selection committee for the Premier of Queensland’s International Sculpture Commission, and served on the Queensland College of Art Industry Advisory Board. In 2013, he joined the Board of Brisbane’s Institute of Modern Art, and in 2014 he became Founding Benefactor of the QAGOMA Foundation.
Audit and Risk Management Committee

The Audit and Risk Management Committee provides independent assurance and assistance to the Board of Trustees and the Gallery regarding:

- the internal control structure of the Gallery
- the risk management practices of the Gallery
- the internal and external audit practices of the Gallery
- the financial accountability of the Gallery, as prescribed under the Financial Accountability Act 2009, particularly in relation to the preparation of annual financial statements
- the compliance of the Gallery with relevant laws, regulations and government policies.

The committee met four times during the year.

Achievements during the year included:

- review of the 2012–13 Financial Statements
- oversight of the external audit function, including review of responses to all external audit reports
- oversight of the internal audit function, including preparation of the Strategic and Annual Audit Plans and review of all internal audit reports
- review of major policies prepared by the Gallery with relevance to the role of the committee.

Members of the committee as at 30 June 2014:

Total remuneration of $875 was paid to committee members in 2013–14. No travel costs were payable.

In performing its functions, the Audit and Risk Management Committee observed the terms of its charter and had due regard to Queensland Treasury’s Audit Committee Guidelines.
Work Health and Safety Committee

The Gallery’s Work Health and Safety (WH&S) Committee assists in developing WH&S standards, policies and procedures for all Gallery staff. The committee facilitates cooperation between the Gallery’s management and staff by initiating, developing and carrying out measures designed to ensure the health and safety of all staff in the workplace. The committee consists of 16 WH&S representatives and nine WH&S advisors.

The committee met on five occasions during the year and undertook the following:

- reviewed the Gallery’s WH&S framework to align with current legislation
- conducted regular inspections and safety audits of work areas and implemented safe work practices for individual employees across various departments
- implemented training for staff on manual handling and office ergonomics
- responded to all reported/identified hazards
- provided all staff with enhanced access to WH&S information via the intranet and an online WH&S support request system.

In addition, five staff completed a five-day training course with the Queensland branch of the National Safety Council of Australia.

Public sector ethics

The Chair and members of the Board, the Director and all staff are bound by the whole-of-government Code of Conduct for the Queensland Public Service under the Public Sector Ethics Act 1994. Since 2012, public sector ethics training has been provided to all staff on an annual basis and Code of Conduct training is an integral part of the induction procedure for new staff.

In 2013–14, all staff were required to complete online or face-to-face Code of Conduct training, delivered through Learning Seat or by the Corporate Administration Agency. In addition to targeted Code of Conduct training, ethical behaviour was also addressed in human resources training delivered throughout the year, including online training available to all staff on equal opportunity in employment and the use of electronic communications and social media.

The Gallery’s administrative procedures and management practices are developed and conducted according to the ethics and principles set out in the Public Sector Ethics Act 1994 and the Code of Conduct for the Queensland Public Service. Individual performance agreements require all employees to uphold these ethics principles. Relevant policies reviewed during 2013–14 included policies related to performance planning, workplace rehabilitation, recruitment and selection, working hours, leave management, workplace harassment, performance improvement, management of employee complaints and induction processes.

Since 2013, the Gallery has instigated a policy review schedule which establishes a planned review of all human resource policies on a rolling three-year basis. This ensures all policies continue to reflect contemporary practice and current legislation, including the Code of Conduct. Where there are legislative or other significant changes outside the scheduled review period that effect a particular policy, a timely review will occur to ensure compliance and good governance are maintained.
Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art Foundation

The Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art (QAGOMA) Foundation supports the development of the state art Collection and the presentation of major national and international exhibitions and community-based public programs, including regional and children’s exhibition programs. The Foundation receives support through donations, bequests and gifts of artworks from individual benefactors, as well as Queensland Government funding.

Over $5.6 million in cash donations was received by the Foundation during the year. We thank all our supporters this year and acknowledge the considerable contributions by several longstanding benefactors, including Foundation President Tim Fairfax, AC, Win Schubert, AO, the Tim Fairfax Family Foundation, Paul and Susan Taylor, James C Sourris, AM, Cathryn Mittelheuser, AM, Thomas Bradley and the Airey Family.

A total of 460 artworks were acquired for the Collection through the Foundation, with a total value of over $5.1 million. We extend our appreciation to all our donors, particularly James C Sourris, AM, James Mollison, AO, Sara Kelly, Dr Michael and Eva Slancar, Tim Storrier and Glen Manser.

The Foundation 2014 Annual Appeal successfully raised funds to acquire the remarkable portrait Sergeant P, after Afghanistan 2012 by Archibald Prize winner and official Australian war artist Ben Quilty. At the Appeal, members and donors had the opportunity to hear the artist speak about his work. The response to the Appeal was exceptional and we thank all contributors — Foundation members, QAGOMA members and the 82 new donors.

The Foundation continued to broaden its funding sources, attracting support from Desmond and Sharon Whybird for the Transparent: Watercolour in Queensland 1850s–1980s publication, and a significant contribution from the Tim Fairfax Family Foundation for the presentation of the Children’s Art Centre exhibition ‘Let’s Create an Exhibition with a Boy Named Cal’.

This year, 19 new members joined the Foundation and 39 existing members upgraded their level of membership. Full details of the QAGOMA Foundation operations and activities are available in the annual Foundation publication, Year in Review 2013–14, published in October 2014.

Risk management and accountability

The Gallery’s risk management process led by the Audit and Risk Management Committee identified the major strategic risks facing the Gallery as financial constraints limiting the Gallery’s ability to deliver exhibitions and programs, loss or damage to the Collection, and management of the Gallery’s reputation. Strategic risks are addressed by the Board, while operational risks are addressed by individual managers. The findings of risk assessment inform the Gallery’s broader planning processes.

Internal audit

An internal audit function is carried out on behalf of the Board of Trustees by the Corporate Administration Agency. The internal audit function is independent of management and the external auditors.

The role of the internal audit function is to:

a) Appraise the Gallery’s financial administration and its effectiveness with regard to the functions and duties imposed on it by Section 61 of the Financial Accountability Act 2009.

b) Provide value-added audit services and advice to the Audit and Risk Management Committee and the Gallery on the effectiveness, efficiency, appropriateness, legality and probity of the Gallery’s operations.

The internal audit function operates under a charter consistent with relevant audit and ethical standards and is approved by the Audit and Risk Management Committee. The internal audit function has due regard to Queensland Treasury’s Audit Committee Guidelines.

A Strategic Audit Plan and an Annual Audit Plan are approved by the Audit and Risk Management Committee each year in order to ensure that the internal risk process focuses on the areas of greatest potential risk to the Gallery.

The effectiveness of the internal audit function is subject to monitoring by the Audit and Risk Management Committee. Costs are minimised by using internal auditors from the Corporate Administration Agency as part of a shared service arrangement, and by concentrating on areas of greatest risk to the Gallery.

The internal audit function completed an independent audit on revenue management in the Gallery’s cafes and restaurants in 2013–14.

External scrutiny

The Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees was not subject to any new external audits or reviews during the financial year (other than the audit report on the financial statements).

In October 2013, the Queensland Audit Office tabled a follow-up report to The Report to Parliament No. 9 for 2011: Acquisition and Public Access to the Museum, Art Gallery and Library Collections. The follow-up report made no adverse findings and the Gallery was found to have fully implemented the three applicable recommendations. The report noted that good progress had been made in relation to common recommendations applicable to Arts Queensland and the Arts Statutory Bodies that were the subject of the report, but advised that further work was needed to fully address cultural tourism objectives, storage and digitisation of collections, and the full implementation of the Cultural Precinct Strategy.

As a key partner in the delivery of the Cultural Precinct Strategy and Queensland Cultural Precinct Draft Master Plan, the Gallery continues to work productively and collaboratively with precinct partners to deliver cross-precinct programming and to address longer-term planning and infrastructure issues.

Public Sector Renewal Program

The Gallery has actively engaged with the Public Sector Renewal Program and continues to review vacancies and requirements for temporary staff and contractors within QAGOMA’s overall staffing profile. As required, the Gallery forwarded permanent and temporary vacancies greater than 12 months to the Public Service Commission to identify suitable roles for Queensland Government employees requiring placement.

Carers (Recognition) Act 2008

The Gallery recognises that carers make a significant contribution to the economic and social wellbeing of the community. The Gallery supports carers in its workforce by providing flexible working hours. The Gallery reviewed its Work–Life Balance Policy in June 2013, which now includes further information on a range of options supporting carers in the workplace. Related information sessions were offered to supervisors and staff in March and April 2014 on working hours and leave entitlements.
Information systems and recordkeeping

In 2013–14, the Gallery continued the progressive implementation of the Electronic Document and Record Management System (eDRMS). To date, the system has been rolled out to around 70 per cent of Gallery staff, with implementation expected to be complete by the end of 2014. Following implementation, the Gallery will develop a formal Retention and Disposal Schedule for its core business records for approval by the State Archivist. At this stage, only financial records are periodically disposed of, in accordance with the General Retention and Disposal Schedule for Administrative Records — QDAN249 v.7.

The new record management system addresses both physical and electronic records. Legacy records are largely paper-based, but the majority of new records are electronic. Records stored in the Gallery’s new record management system will be retained in line with the Gallery’s formal retention and disposal schedule, once approved. The Gallery is currently reviewing all legacy records to ensure that they also are managed according to this schedule. The Gallery is not aware of any breaches of record security.

Human resources

Workforce planning, attraction and retention

As at 30 June 2014, the Gallery’s workforce was constituted of 269 full-time equivalent staff. Its permanent separation rate was 4.6 per cent.

The Gallery reviewed its organisational structure and analysed various roles and role descriptions during the year in response to its evolving workforce and strategic priorities. A revised organisational structure will commence in 2014–15.

The Gallery’s retail operations staffing was reviewed during the year, with a focus on the structure and rostering of Gallery Store staff.

A key element of workforce planning during the year was the development of a specific learning and development framework aligned with the Public Service Commission’s Capability and Leadership Framework, a comprehensive review of human resources policies and the delivery of a dedicated program of training to support the development of supervisors and staff.

This training program comprised sessions addressing:
• working hours and leave management for supervisors and staff
• reasonable management action program for supervisors
• recruitment and selection training for recruitment panels
• induction training for supervisors
• performance planning for supervisors and staff
• training for nominated Harassment Referral Officers.

Additional training opportunities were offered to all staff through HR Lunchbox forums provided by the Corporate Administration Agency on a range of topics, including establishment management, understanding entitlements, managing ill health in the workplace, applying for expressions of interest and giving feedback. Gallery supervisors also participated in training offered by the national organisation beyondblue regarding mental health in the workplace.

A staff working group was established in December 2013 to lead the response to the Gallery’s results in the 2013 Working for Queensland survey conducted by the Public Service Commission. The survey results identified areas such as learning and development, performance assessment and organisational leadership as areas for potential improvement at the Gallery. The working group met on seven occasions and developed recommendations in relation to key issues identified in the survey. Initiatives implemented included: improved communication of policy updates and additional training about key policies, targeted information sessions about staff entitlements and working hours, and a platform to share knowledge and experiences through staff presentations. The Gallery’s participation rate in the 2014 survey increased from 46.2 to 50.1 per cent.

A Referral Officer network was established across the Cultural Precinct in 2014 and three staff from the Gallery were appointed as Referral Officers. Referral Officers are assisted by the Corporate Administration Agency to provide an initial point of contact for staff who feel they have experienced workplace bullying or harassment and to provide informal and formal resolution options.

All new employees are required to complete an induction process including Code of Conduct and Workplace Health and Safety training relevant to their duties. Staff performance is actively managed through regular performance reviews, which include discussions with staff about their development needs. The Gallery’s Work–Life Balance Policy ensures employees have information about and access to flexible working arrangements including part-time employment, job-sharing and telecommuting.

During the year, the Gallery’s Performance Planning Policy was updated to include clear performance standards and a defined planning cycle to take effect from 1 July 2014. The Gallery also reviewed its induction procedures and updated the policy and supporting handbook. Other policies related to workforce planning, attraction and retention reviewed during the year included policies for temporary vacancies, leave management, working hours, workplace rehabilitation, recruitment and selection, as well as workplace harassment, sexual harassment and violence.

Disclosure of additional information

The Gallery contributes to the Queensland Government’s Open Data initiative to make government data freely and broadly accessible for the benefit of all Queenslanders. Data created by the Gallery, particularly about its Collection and exhibitions, has potential value to the public, to researchers and to arts and cultural industries. The Gallery publishes the following data on the Queensland Government Open Data website (qld.gov.au/data):

- consultancies
- overseas travel
- attendance
- QAGOMA Collection information
- Australian Cinémathèque screening information
- public programs information
- blog posts
- QAGOMA TV posts
- webcasts
- media releases.

Correction to the 2012–13 Annual Report

On page 70 of the 2012–13 Annual Report, 15 per cent was incorrectly recorded as the 2012–13 Actual outcome for the performance measure, Percentage of attendance at ticketed exhibitions of total attendance at Queensland Art Gallery and Gallery of Modern Art. As a new measure, there was no Actual to report for 2012–13. The figure of 15 per cent represented the target for 2013–14.

Early retirements, retrenchments and redundancies

In 2013–14, there were no early retirements, retrenchments or redundancies.

The Gallery did not participate in the Voluntary Separation Program.

Income

The income of the Gallery comes mainly from the Queensland Government annual grant ($31.5m in 2013–14). Other major sources were donations ($6.8m, both cash and artworks), sponsorships ($2.1m, both cash and contra), exhibition admission revenue ($2.2m), and retail and food and beverage revenue ($2.5m and $3.9m respectively). Income for 2013–14 was $2.9m above the previous financial year, reflecting an increase in donations ($2.1m) and exhibition admissions ($1.2m).

Expenses

Expenses for the Gallery were $42.6m in 2013–14. Major costs were employee expenses (59% of total cost) and supplies and services (38%). Expenditure in 2013–14 was down $4.5m over the previous year mainly due to savings in exhibition and public programming, and general supplies and services.

Operating Result from Continuing Operations

The Operating Result from Continuing Operations (income less expenses) was $11.9m for the 2013–14 year — $4.2m was used for the acquisition of artworks, $3.7m represented an increase in the net assets of the Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art Foundation Committee, and $1.2m was the value of artworks donated to the Gallery, which, under accounting requirements, is treated as income.

Other Comprehensive Income — Increase in asset revaluation reserve

As at 30 June 2014, the gallery’s Collection (artworks) and Heritage Library Collection were revalued in line with accounting requirements. The overall increase in the value of these collections was $2.3m (approximately 1% of the value of the total Collection).

Statement of Financial Position

The Statement of Financial Position sets out the Net Assets (that is, assets less liabilities) and equity of the Gallery.

As at 30 June 2014, the Net Assets of the Gallery were $353.1m, up $14.2m on the previous year (as per Total Comprehensive Income).

The Gallery’s major asset was the Collection ($321.1m) and other property ($3.0m).

Also contained in the Net Assets of the Gallery was $22.6m of mainly financial assets held in respect of the Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art Foundation Committee. Most of these assets are donations which need to be retained and invested under the terms of their original donation, with only the interest used for acquisitions.

The favourable variance in income against budget was due to greater than expected grants, donations and sponsorship ($3.8m), investment revenue and gains ($0.9) and user charges ($0.4m), while the favourable variance in expenditure against budget was mainly due to savings in exhibition and public programming, and general supplies and services. The increase in the asset revaluation surplus arose from the revaluation of the Collection.
Financial Governance

The Gallery has a well-developed risk management system and an internal audit system, all under the supervision of the Audit and Risk Management Committee. In addition, the accounts of the Gallery are audited by the Queensland Audit Office. The Gallery maintains a strong system of internal controls and expenditures are minimised and provide value for money. The risk management system under the supervision of the Audit and Risk Management Committee ensures that potential liabilities and risks are understood and well controlled.

Assurances to this effect have been provided by Professor Susan Street, AO, Chair, Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees, and Chris Saines, CNZM, Director, Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art, to the Queensland Audit Office.

1 The legal name of the Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art is the Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees. These financial statements include the financial transactions of the Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art Foundation Committee, previously known as the Queensland Art Gallery Foundation.

General Information

This financial report covers the Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees and its controlled entities.

The Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees is a Queensland Government Statutory Body established under the Queensland Art Gallery Act 1987.

In the financial statements, the term Parent Entity refers to the Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees.

Up to 16 April 2013, the Economic Entity refers to the consolidated entity of the Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees and the Queensland Art Gallery Foundation.

On 16 April 2013, the Queensland Art Gallery Foundation was wound up, and its assets and liabilities transferred to the new Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art Foundation Committee, which is a committee of the Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees. Consequently, from 17 April 2013, the revenues, expenses, assets, liabilities and equity of the new Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art Foundation Committee are included in the Parent Entity.

The Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees (which will hereafter be referred to as the Gallery) is controlled by the State of Queensland which is the ultimate parent. The head office and principal place of business of the Gallery is:

Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art
Stanley Place
South Brisbane QLD 4101

A description of the nature of the Gallery’s operations and its principal activities is included in the notes to the financial statements.

For information in relation to the Gallery’s financial statements, please call (07) 3840 7326, email suzanne.berry@qagoma.qld.gov.au or visit the Gallery’s website gallery@qagoma.qld.gov.au.

Objectives and Principal Activities of the Gallery

The principal object of the Gallery, as set out in the Queensland Art Gallery Act 1987, is to contribute to the cultural, social and intellectual development of all Queenslanders.

The following guiding principles, also set out in the Queensland Art Gallery Act 1987, provide the framework for the delivery of the Gallery’s programs and services:

- Children and young people should be supported in their appreciation of, and involvement in, the visual arts;
- Content relevant to Queensland should be promoted and presented;
- Capabilities for lifelong learning about the visual arts should be developed;
- Respect for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures should be affirmed;
- There should be responsiveness to the needs of communities in regional and outer metropolitan areas;
- Diverse audiences should be developed;
- Leadership and excellence should be provided in the visual arts; and
- Opportunities should be developed for international collaboration and for cultural exports, especially to the Asia Pacific region.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Statement of Compliance

The Gallery has prepared these financial statements in compliance with section 43 of the Financial and Performance Management Standard 2009.

These financial statements are general purpose financial statements, and have been prepared on an accrual basis in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and Interpretations. In addition, the financial statements comply with Queensland Treasury and Trade’s Minimum Reporting Requirements for the year ended 30 June 2014, and other authoritative pronouncements.

With respect to compliance with Australian Accounting Standards and Interpretations, the Gallery has applied those requirements applicable to not-for-profit entities, as the Gallery is a not-for-profit statutory body. Except where stated, the historical cost convention is used.

(b) The Reporting Entity

In the financial statements, the term Parent Entity refers to the Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees.

Up to 16 April 2013, the Economic Entity refers to the consolidated entity of the Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees and the Queensland Art Gallery Foundation.

On 16 April 2013, the Queensland Art Gallery Foundation was wound up, and its assets and liabilities transferred to the new Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art Foundation Committee, which is a committee of the Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees. Consequently, from 17 April 2013, the revenues, expenses, assets, liabilities and equity of the new Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art Foundation Committee are included in the Parent Entity.

In the process of reporting on the Economic Entity, all transactions and balances between the Queensland Art Gallery and the Queensland Art Gallery Foundation have been eliminated in full.

Additional disclosure of significant issues pertaining to the operations of the Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art Foundation Committee is provided at Note 20.
Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees

Notes to and forming part of the Financial Statements 2013–14

(c) Grants and Other Contributions

Grants and other contributions that are non-reciprocal in nature are generally recognised as revenue in the year in which the Gallery obtains control over them. Control is generally obtained at the time of receipt.

Where the payment of a non-reciprocal grant or contribution is set out in a contractual agreement (e.g. sponsorship agreement), the Gallery recognises revenue when it is receivable as per the contractual arrangement.

Where grants are received that are reciprocal in nature, revenue is accrued over the term of the funding arrangement.

Contributed assets, such as donated art work, are recognised at their fair value at the time of acceptance by the Gallery.

Contributions of services are recognised when a fair value can be determined reliably and the services would be purchased if they had not been donated. The Gallery did not recognise any contributed services in the 2013–14 or 2012–13 years.

(d) User Charges and Fees

User charges and fees controlled by the Gallery are recognised as revenue when the revenue has been earned and can be measured reliably with a sufficient degree of certainty. This involves either invoicing for related goods / services and or the recognition of accrued revenue. User charges are controlled by the Gallery where they can be deployed for the achievement of the Gallery’s objectives.

(e) Special Payments

Special payments include ex gratia expenditure and other expenditure that the Gallery is not contractually or legally obliged to make to other parties. In compliance with the Financial and Performance Management Standard 2009, the Gallery maintains a register setting out details of all special payments greater than $5,000. The total of all special payments (including those of $5,000 or less) is disclosed separately in Note 11. However, descriptions of the nature of special payments are only provided for special payments greater than $5,000.

(f) Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purposes of the Statement of Financial Position and the Statement of Cash Flows, cash assets include all cash and cheques receipted but not banked at 30 June, deposits at call with financial institutions, and fixed-term investments of three months or less that are held for cash management purposes, are readily convertible to cash on hand at the Gallery’s or issuer’s option, and are subject to a low risk of changes in value.

The Queensland Art Gallery |Gallery of Modern Art Foundation Committee has investments (in term deposits and cash deposits) that are required to be preserved under the terms of their donations and bequests. As these invested funds are preserved, the investments are classified as non-current financial assets, and not cash and cash equivalents.

(g) Receivables

Trade debtors are recognised at the amounts due at the time of sale or service delivery. Settlement of these amounts is required within 30 days from invoice date.

The collectability of receivables is assessed periodically with an allowance being made for impairment. All known bad debts were written off as at 30 June.

(h) Inventories

Inventories are retail stock held for sale through the Gallery stores, and beverage stock for sale in the Gallery cafes and restaurants. All food purchases are expensed on purchase.
Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees

(h) Inventories (cont.)

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost or net realisable value. Cost is assigned on a weighted average basis and comprises the cost of acquiring the inventories and bringing them to their existing condition. Immaterial expenditure incurred in transporting inventory to the Gallery is expensed as incurred. Net realisable value is determined based on the Gallery’s normal selling pattern.

(i) Acquisitions of Assets

Actual cost is used for the initial recording of all non-current physical asset acquisitions. Cost is determined as the value given as consideration plus costs incidental to the acquisition, including all other costs incurred in getting the assets ready for use. However, any training costs are expensed as incurred.

Assets acquired at no cost or for nominal consideration, other than from an involuntary transfer from another Queensland Government entity, are recognised at their fair value at date of acquisition in accordance with AASB 116 Property, Plant and Equipment.

(j) Property, Plant and Equipment

Items of property, plant and equipment with a cost or other value equal to or in excess of the following thresholds are recognised for financial reporting purposes in the year of acquisition:

- Art Collection $1
- Library Heritage Collection $1
- Other property, plant and equipment $5,000

Items with a lesser value are expensed in the year of acquisition.

(k) Revaluation of Non-Current Physical Assets

The Gallery’s Art Collection and the Gallery’s Library Heritage Collection are measured at fair value in accordance with AASB 116 Property, Plant and Equipment, AASB 13 Fair Value Measurement and Queensland Treasury and Trade’s Non-Current Asset Policies for the Queensland Public Sector. These assets are reported at their revalued amounts, being the fair value at the date of valuation.

The Gallery’s Art Collection is revalued on a rolling basis over three years in accordance with the Collection revaluation policy. The revaluation process is managed by the Deputy Director, Collection and Exhibitions, and revaluations are approved by the Director. Revaluations are conducted by either external valuers or by the Gallery’s own expert curatorial staff (dependent on the current value of the work) and take into account prices paid for comparable works, market conditions, and exchange rates where applicable. If changes in fair value of more than 10% occur in a year, a full revaluation of the Collection is conducted.

The Library Heritage Collection is revalued at the end of the year, generally using prices available through booksellers or through independent valuations. The revaluation process is conducted by the Gallery’s Research Library, managed by the Deputy Director, Collection and Exhibitions, and approved by the Director.

The Gallery reviewed its fair value methodologies for these Collection assets in 2013–14 in the light of AASB 13. No change in valuation arose from AASB 13, given that these Collection assets were already measured at fair value.

Any revaluation increment arising on the revaluation of these Collection assets is credited to the asset revaluation surplus, except to the extent it reverses a revaluation decrement previously recognised as an expense. A decrease in the carrying amount on revaluation is charged as an expense, to the extent it exceeds the balance, if any, in the asset revaluation surplus.
Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees

(k) Revaluation of Non-Current Physical Assets (cont.)
Plant and equipment, and leasehold improvements are measured at cost in accordance with Queensland Treasury and Trade’s Non-Current Asset Accounting Policies for the Queensland Public Sector. The carrying amounts for such plant and equipment at cost should not materially differ from their fair value.

Materiality concepts under AASB 1031 Materiality are considered in determining whether the difference between the carrying amount and the fair value of an asset is material.

(l) Fair Value Measurement
Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date under current market conditions regardless of whether that price is directly derived from observable inputs or estimated using another valuation technique.

Observable inputs are publicly available data that are relevant to the characteristics of the assets/liabilities being valued.

Unobservable inputs are data, assumptions and judgements that are not available publicly, but are relevant to the characteristics of the assets/liabilities being valued. Unobservable inputs are used to the extent that sufficient relevant and reliable observable inputs are not available for similar assets/liabilities. Significant unobservable inputs used by the Gallery include, but are not limited to, auction prices paid for works that are deemed by the Gallery to be comparable to its own works and valuations provided by expert valuers engaged by the Gallery.

All fair value measurements are based on the highest and best use of the asset.

All assets and liabilities of the Gallery for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the following hierarchy, based on the data and assumptions used in the most recent specific appraisals:

| Level 1: | Represents fair value measurements that reflect unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities. |
| Level 2: | Represents fair value measurements that are substantially derived from inputs (other than quoted prices that are included in Level 1) that are observable, either directly or indirectly. |
| Level 3: | Represents fair value measurements that are substantially derived from unobservable inputs. |

The Gallery’s financial investments with QIC and QTC are categorised at Level 2 and the Gallery’s Collection assets are categorised at Level 3.

As 2013–14 is the first year of application of AASB 13 by the Gallery, there were no transfers between fair value categories during the period.

More specific fair value information about the Gallery’s Property, Plant and Equipment valuations and the Gallery’s Financial Instrument valuations are included in Notes 16 and 28.

(m) Depreciation of Property, Plant and Equipment
Plant and equipment is depreciated on a straight-line basis so as to allocate the net cost or revalued amount of each asset, less its estimated residual value, progressively over the estimated useful life to the Gallery.
Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees

(m) Depreciation of Property, Plant and Equipment (cont.,)
For each class of depreciable assets, the following depreciation rates are used:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Rate %</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Plant and equipment</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Computers</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>

<tr>
<td>Printers</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Leasehold improvement</td>
<td>6–10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Other</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Where assets have separately identifiable components that are subject to regular replacement, these components are assigned useful lives distinct from the asset to which they relate and are depreciated accordingly.

Any expenditure that increases the originally assessed capacity or service potential of an asset is capitalised and the new depreciable amount is depreciated over the remaining useful life of the asset to the Gallery.

The Gallery’s Art Collection and the Gallery’s Library Heritage Collection are not depreciated due to the heritage and cultural nature of the assets.

(n) Impairment of Non-Current Assets
All non-current physical assets are assessed for indicators of impairment on an ongoing basis. If an indicator of possible impairment exists, the Gallery determines the asset’s recoverable amount. Any amount by which the asset’s carrying amount exceeds the recoverable amount is recorded as an impairment loss.

The asset’s recoverable amount is determined as the higher of the asset’s fair value less costs to sell and depreciated replacement cost.

An impairment loss is recognised immediately in the Statement of Comprehensive Income, unless the asset is carried at a revalued amount. When an asset is measured at a revalued amount, the impairment loss is offset against the asset revaluation surplus of the relevant class to the extent available.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised as income, unless the asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case the reversal of the impairment loss is treated as a revaluation increase. Refer also to Note 1 (k).

(o) Intangibles
Intangible assets with a cost or other value equal to or greater than $100,000 are recognised in the financial statements. Items with a lesser value are expensed. Currently, the Gallery has no intangible assets.

(p) Leases
A distinction is made in the financial statements between finance leases that effectively transfer from the lessor to the lessee substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to ownership, and operating leases under which the lessor effectively retains substantially all risks and benefits.

The Gallery has no financial leases.

Operating lease payments are representative of the pattern of benefits derived from the leased assets and are expensed in the periods in which they are incurred.
Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees

Notes to and forming part of the Financial Statements 2013–14

(q) Other Financial Assets

Other financial assets – current consists of investments with short periods to maturity that are readily convertible to cash on hand at the Gallery’s option and that are subject to a low risk of changes in value.

Other financial assets – non-current consists of investments managed on behalf of the Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art Foundation Committee by QIC and QTC, and term deposits held with financial institutions. Many of these invested funds are required to be preserved under the terms of their original donations and bequests (see Notes 20 and 21).

QIC and QTC investments are valued at the valuations provided by the respective bodies on 30 June each year. Changes in market value are recognised as income and expenditure in determining the net result for the period.

Interest is recognised on an accrual basis.

(r) Payables

Trade creditors are recognised upon receipt of the goods or services ordered and are measured at the agreed purchase/contract price gross of applicable trade and other discounts. Amounts owing are unsecured and are generally settled on 30-day terms.

(s) Financial Instruments

Recognition

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised in the Statement of Financial Position when the Gallery becomes party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument.

Classification

Financial instruments are classified and measured as follows:

- Cash and cash equivalents — held at fair value through profit and loss
- Receivables — held at amortised cost
- Financial investments with QIC and QTC — held at fair value through profit and loss
- Held to maturity term deposits with financial institutions — held at amortised cost
- Payables — held at amortised cost.

The Gallery does not enter into transactions for speculative purposes or for hedging.

All disclosures relating to the measurement basis and financial risk management of other financial instruments held by the Gallery are included in Note 28.

(t) Employee Benefits

Salaries, Wages and Sick Leave

Salaries and wages due but unpaid at reporting date are recognised in the Statement of Financial Position at the current salary rates. As the Gallery expects such liabilities to be wholly settled within 12 months of the reporting date, the liabilities are recognised at undiscounted amounts.

Prior history indicates that on average, sick leave taken each reporting period is less than the entitlement accrued. This is expected to recur in future periods. Accordingly, it is unlikely that existing accumulated entitlements will be used by employees and no liability for unused sick leave entitlements is recognised.

As sick leave is non-vesting, an expense is recognised for this leave as it is taken.
Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees

(t) Employee Benefits (cont.)

Recreation Leave

For unpaid entitlements expected to be paid within 12 months, the liabilities are recognised at their undiscounted values. For those entitlements not expected to be paid within 12 months, the liabilities are recognised at their present value, calculated using yields on Fixed Rate Commonwealth Government bonds of similar maturity, after projecting the remuneration rates expected to apply at the time of likely settlement.

Long Service Leave

Under the Queensland Government’s long service leave scheme, a levy is made on the Gallery to cover this cost. Levies are expensed in the period in which they are paid or payable. Amounts paid to employees for long service leave are claimed from the scheme as and when leave is taken.

No provision for long service leave is recognised in the financial statements, the liability being held on a whole-of-government basis and reported in the whole-of-government financial report prepared pursuant to AASB 1049 Whole of Government and General Government Sector Financial Reporting.

Superannuation

Employer superannuation contributions are paid to QSuper, the superannuation plan for Queensland Government employees, at rates determined by the State Actuary. Contributions are expensed in the period in which they are paid or payable. The Gallery’s obligation is limited to its contribution to QSuper.

The QSuper scheme has defined benefit and defined contribution categories. The liability for defined benefits is held on a whole-of-government basis and reported in those financial statements pursuant to AASB 1049 Whole of Government and General Government Sector Financial Reporting.

Payroll Tax and Workers Compensation

Payroll tax and workers’ compensation insurance are a consequence of employing employees, but are not counted in an employee’s total remuneration package. They are not employee benefits and are recognised separately as employee related expenses.

Key Management Personnel

Key management personnel and remuneration disclosures are made in accordance with section 5 of the Financial Reporting Requirements for Queensland Government Agencies issued by Queensland Treasury and Trade. Refer to Note 7 for the disclosures on key management personnel and remuneration.

(u) Provisions

Provisions are recorded when the Gallery has a present obligation, either legal or constructive as a result of a past event. They are recognised at the amount expected at the reporting date for which the obligation will be settled in a future period. Where the settlement of the obligation is expected after 12 or more months, the obligation is discounted to the present value using an appropriate discount rate.

The Gallery currently has no provisions recorded.

(v) Insurance

The Gallery’s non-current physical assets and other risks are insured through the Queensland Government Insurance Fund (QGIF), premiums being paid on a risk assessment basis. Additional insurance is taken out for Directors and Officers Insurance, motor vehicles, business travel and for some exhibitions where required by contracts with external parties.
Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees

(v) Insurance (cont.)

In addition, the Gallery pays premiums to Workcover Queensland in respect of its obligations for employee compensation.

(w) Services Provided by Arts Queensland and the Corporate Administration Agency

The Queensland Art Gallery and the Gallery of Modern Art buildings are owned by the State of Queensland, and managed by Arts Queensland. Rent is not paid for the occupation of these premises.

The Gallery pays Arts Queensland for services including building maintenance and repairs, cleaning and external security. The cost of these services in the 2014 year was $1,733,000 (2013: $1,676,000). In addition, the Gallery reimburses Arts Queensland for the Gallery's share of electricity and gas $1,490,000 (2013: $1,470,000).

The Corporate Administration Agency (CAA) provides finance and human resource management services to the Gallery at a cost of $929,000 (2013: $892,918).

(x) Services provided to the Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art Foundation Committee

The Gallery provided corporate support including human resources, office accommodation, computer equipment and other office requisites on an in-kind basis to facilitate the operation of the Foundation. As the Foundation is now a committee of the Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees, the Gallery no longer records these services in the financial accounts. The cost of these services from 1 July 2012 to 16 April 2013 when the Queensland Art Gallery Foundation was wound up was $257,000.

(y) Taxation

The Gallery is a Statutory Body as defined under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 and is exempt from Commonwealth taxation with the exception of Fringe Benefits Tax and Goods and Services Tax (GST). As such, GST credits receivable from and GST payable to the ATO are recognised and accrued. Refer to Note 13.

(z) Issuance of Financial Statements

The financial statements are authorised for issue by the Chair of the Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees and the Director of the Queensland Art Gallery at the date of signing the Management Certificate.

(aa) Accounting Estimates and Judgements

The preparation of financial statements necessarily requires the determination and use of certain critical accounting estimates, assumptions and management judgements that have the potential to cause a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year. Such estimates, judgements and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised and in future periods as relevant.

Estimates and assumptions that have a potential significant effect are outlined in the following financial statement notes:

- Valuation of Property, Plant and Equipment — Note 1 (k)–(l) and Note 16
- Contingencies — Note 27

The Australian Government passed its Clean Energy Act in November 2011, which resulted in the introduction of a price on carbon emissions made by Australian businesses from 1 July 2012. From 1 July 2014, the Government plans to abolish the carbon tax.

The withdrawal of the carbon pricing mechanism is not expected to have a significant impact of the Gallery’s critical accounting estimates, assumptions and management judgements.
Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees
Notes to and forming part of the Financial Statements 2013–14

(ab) Rounding and Comparatives

Amounts included in the financial statements are in Australian dollars and have been rounded to the nearest $1,000 or, where that amount is $500 or less, to zero unless disclosure of the full amount is specifically required. Comparative information has been restated where necessary to be consistent with disclosures in the current reporting period.

(ac) New and Revised Accounting Standards

The Gallery did not voluntarily change any of its accounting policies during 2013–14. Australian Accounting Standard changes applicable for the first time for 2013–14 have had minimal effect on the Gallery’s financial statements, as explained below.

AASB 13 Fair Value Measurement became effective from reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2013. AASB 13 sets out a new definition of ‘fair value’ as well as new principles to be applied when determining the fair value of assets and liabilities. The new requirements will apply to all of the Gallery’s assets and liabilities (excluding leases) that are measured and/or disclosed at fair value or another measurement based on fair value. The impacts of AASB 13 relate to the fair value measurement methodologies used and financial statement disclosures made in respect of such assets and liabilities.

The Gallery reviewed its fair value methodologies (including instructions to valuers, data used and assumptions made) for all items of property, plant and equipment measured at fair value to determine whether those methodologies complied with AASB 13. No change in valuation arose from AASB 13 given that fair value methodologies were already compliant.

AASB 13 has required an increased amount of information to be disclosed in relation to fair value measurements for both assets and liabilities. For those fair value measurements of assets or liabilities that are based substantially on data that is not observable (i.e. accessible outside the Gallery), the amount of information disclosed has significantly increased. Note 1 (k) explains some of the principles underpinning the additional fair value information disclosed. Most of this additional information is set out in Notes 16 and 28.

A revised version of AASB 119 Employee Benefits became effective from reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2013. The definition of ‘short-term employee benefits’ has now been revised to include all employee benefits expected to be settled wholly before 12 months. The change in the definition has meant that annual leave liabilities that previously would have been regarded as ‘short-term employee benefits’ are now measured and classified as ‘other long-term employee benefits’. Changes to the definition and measurement of ‘termination benefits’ may also impact the Gallery in future periods, but the impact is likely to be immaterial as traditionally the Gallery has rarely offered such termination benefits.

The revised AASB 119 also includes changed requirements for the measurement of employer liabilities/ assets arising from defined benefit plans, and the measurement and presentation of changes in such liabilities/assets. The Gallery makes employer superannuation only to QSuper defined benefits plans, and the corresponding QSuper employer benefit obligation is held by the State. Therefore those changes to AASB 119 will have no impact on the Gallery.

AASB 1053 Application of Tiers of Australian Accounting Standards became effective from reporting periods beginning on or after 1 July 2013. AASB 1053 establishes a differential reporting framework for those entities that prepare general purpose financial statements, consisting of two Tiers of reporting requirements — Australian Accounting Standards (commonly referred to as ‘Tier 1’) and Australian Accounting Standards – Reduced Disclosure Requirements (commonly referred to as ‘Tier 2’). Tier 1 requirements comprise the full range of AASB recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure requirements that are currently applicable to reporting entities in Australia.
Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees

The only difference between Tier 1 and Tier 2 requirements is that Tier 2 requires fewer disclosures than Tier 1.

Pursuant to AASB 1053, public sector entities like the Gallery may adopt Tier 2 requirements for their general purpose financial statements. However, AASB 1053 acknowledges the power of a regulator to require application of the Tier 1 requirements. In the case of the Gallery, Queensland Treasury and Trade is the regulator. Queensland Treasury and Trade has advised that its policy decision is to require adoption of Tier 1 reporting by all Queensland Government departments and statutory bodies that are consolidated into the whole-of-government financial statements (which includes the Gallery). Therefore, the release of AASB 1053 and associated amending standards will have no impact on the Gallery.

The Gallery is not permitted to early adopt a new or amended accounting standard ahead of the specified commencement date unless approval is obtained from Queensland Treasury and Trade. Consequently, the Gallery has not applied any Australian Accounting Standards and Interpretations that have been issued but are not yet effective. The Gallery applies standards and interpretations in accordance with their respective commencement dates.

At the date of authorisation of the financial report, the expected impacts of new or amended Australian Accounting Standards with future commencement dates are as set out below.

AASB 1055 Budgetary Reporting applies from reporting periods beginning on or after 1 July 2014. The Gallery will need to include in its 2014–15 financial statements the original budgeted figures from the Income Statement, Balance Sheet, Statement of Changes in Equity, and Cash Flow Statement as published in the 2014–15 Queensland Government’s Service Delivery Statement. The budgeted figures will need to be presented consistently with the corresponding (actual) financial statements, and will be accompanied by explanations of major variances between the actual amounts and the corresponding original budgeted figures.

The following new and revised standards apply as from reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2014:

- AASB 10 Consolidated Financial Statements
- AASB 11 Joint Arrangements
- AASB 12 Disclosure of Interests in Other Entities
- AASB 127 (revised) Separate Financial Statements
- AASB 128 (revised) Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures
- AASB 2011-7 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards arising from the Consolidation and Joint Arrangements Standards [AASB 1, 2, 3, 5, 7, 101, 107, 112, 118, 121, 124, 132, 133, 136, 138, 139, 1023 & 1038 and Interpretations 5, 9, 16 & 17]
- AASB 2013-8 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Australian Implementation Guidance for Not-for-Profit Entities – Control and Structured Entities.

AASB 10 redefines and clarifies the concept of control of another entity, and is the basis for determining which entities should be considered into an entity’s financial statements.

AASB 2013-8 applies the various principles in AASB 10 for determining whether a not-for-profit entity controls another entity. The Gallery has assessed its arrangements with other entities and has determined that the Gallery does not have any controlled entities.

However, if the Gallery does control another entity in the future, the Gallery will need to follow the relevant accounting treatment specified in AASB 10.

AASB 11 deals with the concept of joint control and sets out new principles for determining the type of joint arrangement that exists, which in turn dictates the accounting treatment. The new categories of joint arrangements under AASB 11 are more aligned to the actual rights and obligations of the parties to the arrangement. The Gallery has assessed its arrangements with other entities to determine whether a joint arrangement exists in terms of AASB 11. Based on present arrangements, no joint arrangements exist. However, if a joint arrangement does arise in future, the Gallery will need to follow the relevant accounting treatment specified in either AASB 11 or AASB 128, depending on the nature of the joint arrangement.

AASB 9 Financial Instruments (December 2010) and AASB 2010-7 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards arising from AASB 9 (December 2010) [AASB 1, 3, 4, 5, 7, 101, 102, 108, 112, 118, 120, 121, 127, 128, 131, 132, 136, 137, 139, 1023 & 1038 and Interpretations 2, 5, 10, 12, 19 & 127] become effective from reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2017. The main impacts of these standards on the Gallery are that they will change the requirements for the classification, measurement and disclosures associated with the Gallery's financial assets. Under the new requirements, financial assets will be more simply classified according to whether they are measured at amortised cost or fair value. Pursuant to AASB 9, financial assets can only be measured at amortised cost if two conditions are met. One of these conditions is that the asset must be held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets in order to collect contractual cash flows. The other condition is that the contractual terms of the asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

The Gallery has commenced reviewing the measurement of its financial assets against the new AASB 9 classification and measurement requirements. However, as the classification of financial assets at the date of initial application of AASB 9 will depend on the facts and circumstances existing at that date, the Gallery’s conclusions will not be confirmed until closer to that time. At this stage, and assuming no change occurs in the types of transactions the Gallery enters into, it is likely that the Gallery’s fixed-term investments with financial institutions would be measured at amortised cost. Consequently, the classifications would remain as per Notes 1(s) and 28. In the case of the Gallery’s current receivables, as they are short term in nature, the carrying amount is expected to be a reasonable approximation of fair value.

All other Australian accounting standards and interpretations with future commencement dates are either not applicable to the Gallery or have no material impact on the Gallery.

(b) Remuneration Expenses
Remuneration policy for the Gallery’s key management personnel is set by the Queensland Public Service Commission as provided for under the Public Service Act 2008. The remuneration and other terms of employment for the key management personnel are specified in employment contracts. The contracts provide for other benefits including motor vehicles.

For the 2013–14 year, remuneration of key management personnel increased by 2.2% in accordance with government policy.

The following disclosures focus on the expenses incurred by the Gallery during the respective reporting periods that is attributable to key management positions. Therefore the amounts disclosed reflect expenses recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

Remuneration packages for key management personnel of the Gallery comprise the following:

- Short-term employee expenses which include:
  - Salaries, allowances and leave entitlements earned and expensed for the entire year or for that part of the year during which the employee occupied the specified position.
- Non-monetary benefits — consisting of the provision of vehicles together with fringe benefits tax applicable to the benefit.
- Long-term employee expenses include amounts expensed in respect of annual and long service entitlements earned.

Refer to Notes 1 (i), 1 (j), 1 (k), 1 (l), 1 (m), and 1 (n) for further information regarding policies in relation to costing, valuation and depreciation of property, plant and equipment. Because of the individual nature of most of the items in the Gallery’s Artwork and Library Heritage Collections, items are generally valued on an individual basis. Consequently, it is not possible to provide any quantifiable information about significant unobservable inputs used in the fair value measurement of each item in the Gallery’s Collection. Based on the valuations carried out by the Gallery’s curatorial staff and independent valuers, a 10% increase/decrease in the price of similar works would result in a $31.4m increase/decrease in the valuation of the Collection.

27. Contingent Liabilities

(a) Litigation in progress

The Gallery does not have any litigation before the Courts, nor is it aware of any pending litigation.

(b) Financial Guarantees

As part of contractual negotiations (mainly in relation to exhibition or sponsorship contracts), the Gallery is occasionally required to provide financial guarantees. In accordance with the Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982, the Gallery has approval from the Treasurer to provide financial guarantees under certain conditions; the balance of the guarantees are approved by the Treasurer. The guarantees are not recognised in the Statement of Financial Position as the Gallery does not expect the guarantees to be called upon. As at 30 June 2014, there were no material guarantees in place.

28. Financial Instruments – Economic Entity

(a) Classification of Financial Instruments

(b) Financial Risk Management

The Gallery’s activities expose it to a variety of financial risks — interest rate risk, credit risk, liquidity risk and market risk.

Financial risk management is implemented pursuant to government and Gallery policies. These policies focus on the unpredictability of financial markets and seek to minimise potential adverse effects on the financial performance of the Gallery. Financial risk is managed by the Financial Services Section, in accordance with these policies.

The Financial Services Section regularly reports to the Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees and the Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art Foundation Committee in relation to financial assets.

The Gallery measures risk exposure using a variety of methods as follows:

(c) Credit Risk Exposure

Credit risk exposure refers to the situation where the Gallery may incur financial loss as a result of another party to a financial instrument failing to discharge their obligation.

The maximum exposure to credit risk at balance date in relation to each class of financial assets is the gross carrying amount of those assets which is equal to the amounts listed in Note 28 (a).

No collateral is held as security and no credit enhancements relate to financial assets held by the Gallery.

The Gallery manages credit risk by ensuring that the Gallery invests in secure assets and by monitoring funds owed on an ongoing basis. All investments are consistent with the Gallery’s Investment Policy which is overseen by the Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees.

No financial assets and financial liabilities have been offset and presented net in the Statement of Financial Position.

Cash and cash equivalent investments are held with financial institutions approved under the Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982.

No financial assets have had their terms renegotiated so as to prevent them from being past due or impaired.

Ageing of past due but not impaired receivables are disclosed in the following tables:

(d) Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk refers to the situation where the Gallery may encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities.

The Gallery is only exposed to liquidity risk in respect of its payables.

The Gallery manages exposure to liquidity risk by ensuring that sufficient funds are held to meet supplier obligations as they fall due. This is achieved by ensuring that minimum levels of cash are held within the various bank accounts so as to meet the expected supplier liabilities as they fall due, and by investment in financial instruments, which under normal market conditions are readily convertible to cash.

(d) Liquidity Risk (cont.)
The following table sets out the liquidity risk of financial liabilities held by the Gallery. It represents the contractual maturity of financial liabilities, calculated based on cash flows relating to the repayment of the principal amount outstanding at balance date.

(e) Market Risk
The Gallery is exposed to foreign currency exchange risk only to the extent that some contracts, mainly exhibition contracts and art acquisition contracts, are in foreign currency. As far as possible, the Gallery minimises this risk by negotiating contracts in Australian dollars and by keeping payment terms short. Where this is not possible and the amount is material, the Gallery may offset foreign currency exchange risks by holding foreign currency when approved by the Treasurer under the Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982. The Gallery is not currently holding foreign exchange reserves for this purpose.

(f) Interest Rate Risk
The Gallery is exposed to interest rate risk through cash deposited in interest-bearing accounts. The Gallery does not undertake any hedging in relation to interest risk. Interest returns on investments are managed in accordance with the Gallery’s investment policies.

The following interest rate sensitivity analysis is based on a report similar to that which would be provided to management, depicting the outcome to profit and loss if interest rates changed by +/-1% from the year-end rates applicable to the Gallery’s financial assets and liabilities. With all other variables held constant, the Gallery would have a reserves and equity increase/(decrease) of $315,000 (2013: $237,000). This is attributable to the Gallery’s exposure to variable interest rates on interest-bearing cash deposits.

CERTIFICATE OF THE QUEENSLAND ART GALLERY BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The general purpose financial statements have been prepared pursuant to the s.62(1) of the Financial Accountability Act 2009 (the Act), relevant sections of the Financial and Performance Management Standard 2009 and other prescribed requirements. In accordance of s.62(1) of the Act we certify that in our opinion:

(a) the prescribed requirements for establishing and keeping the accounts have been complied with in all material respects; and
(b) the statements have been drawn up to present a true and fair view, in accordance with prescribed accounting standards, of the transactions of the Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees for the financial year ended 30 June 2014 and of the financial position of the Gallery at the end of that year.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR’S REPORT

To the Board of Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees

I have audited the accompanying financial report of Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees, which comprises the statements of financial position as at 30 June 2014, the statements of comprehensive income, statements of changes in equity and statements of cash flows for the year then ended, notes comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information, and certificates given by the Chair and the Director of the entity and the consolidated entity comprising the Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees and the entities it controlled at the year’s end or from time to time during the financial year.

The Board’s Responsibility for the Financial Report

The Board is responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with prescribed accounting requirements identified in the Financial Accountability Act 2009 and the Financial and Performance Management Standard 2009, including compliance with Australian Accounting Standards. The Board’s responsibility also includes such internal control as the Board determines is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor’s Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on the audit. The audit was conducted in accordance with the Auditor-General of Queensland Auditing Standards, which incorporate the Australian Auditing Standards. Those standards require compliance with relevant ethical requirements relating to audit engagements and that the audit is planned and performed to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity’s preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity’s internal control, other than in expressing an opinion on compliance with prescribed requirements. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the Board, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report including any mandatory financial reporting requirements approved by the Treasurer for application in Queensland.

I believe that the audit evidence obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.
Independence

The Auditor-General Act 2009 promotes the independence of the Auditor-General and all authorised auditors. The Auditor-General is the auditor of all Queensland public sector entities and can be removed only by Parliament.

The Auditor-General may conduct an audit in any way considered appropriate and is not subject to direction by any person about the way in which audit powers are to be exercised. The Auditor-General has for the purposes of conducting an audit, access to all documents and property and can report to Parliament matters which in the Auditor-General’s opinion are significant.

Opinion

In accordance with s.40 of the Auditor-General Act 2009 –

(a) I have received all the information and explanations which I have required; and
(b) in my opinion –

(i) the prescribed requirements in relation to the establishment and keeping of accounts have been complied with in all material respects; and

(ii) the financial report presents a true and fair view, in accordance with the prescribed accounting standards, of the transactions of Queensland Art Gallery Board of Trustees and the consolidated entity for the financial year 1 July 2013 to 30 June 2014 and of the financial position as at the end of that year.

Other Matters - Electronic Presentation of the Audited Financial Report
