TOURS FOR VISITORS WITH DISABILITY

ART AND DEMENTIA
AUSLAN
HARD OF HEARING
LOW VISION

Guided tours are available for visitors with disability and explore featured exhibitions or selected works from Collection displays. Tours are designed for small groups and are tailored to meet the needs of tour participants.

Art and Dementia | Bookings required
Designed for visitors living with dementia and their carer or support worker, tours are delivered at a relaxed pace. The interactive, discussion-based format encourages dialogue, participation and reflection. Tours focus on four or five specially selected artworks and are for small groups.

WHEN: Wednesdays, monthly
By request for residential care and community groups

Auslan | Bookings not required
An Auslan interpreter accompanies the volunteer guide during a tour of selected artworks or special exhibitions.

WHEN: Sundays, monthly | February to November

Low Vision | Bookings required
Audio-described tours are available for visitors with low vision, offering a narrated description of the visual elements of selected artworks.

WHEN: On request | Advance bookings are essential

Hard of Hearing | Bookings required
Ideal for visitors with a cochlear implant, hearing aid or hearing loss. Small groups explore featured exhibitions or selected artworks. Assisted listening devices are available (FM system).

TOURS FOR SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS

Special interest community groups and associations are welcome to book a guided tour for their Gallery visit. Volunteer-led group tours are available at either the Queensland Art Gallery or Gallery of Modern Art. Tours run for approximately 40 minutes and highlight selected works.

Guided tours can be arranged for groups of between 10 to 50 people. Bookings are required a minimum of 15 days in advance and are provided subject to tour time and date availability. Self-guided group bookings are also available.

Please note that admission fees apply to some special exhibitions. Group members purchase their exhibition ticket prior to the commencement of the tour.
